the provinces: I got me men-ingers and women-ingers, and the delights of the fons of men, as mufical infiruments, and that of all forts.

9 So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem; also my witdom remained with me. 10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired, I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy: for my heart rejoy-ced in all my labour, and this was my portion of all my labour, are then I solected on all the works that

13 Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 The wife mans eyes are in his head, but the fool walketh in darkness: and I my self perceived also, that one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then faid I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, fo it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wife? Then I faid in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wife more than of the fool for ever; fee-ing that which now is, in the days to come shall all be forgorten: and how di-eth the wife man? as the sool. 17 Therefore I hated life, because the work that is wrought under the fun, is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of fpirit,

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which I had taken under the fun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wife man or a fool? yet shall be have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have thewed my felf wife under the fun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which

I took under the fun.

21 For there is a man whose labour in in wildom, and in knowledge, and in equity: yet to a man that hath not laboured therein. That he leave it for his postion. This also is vanity, and a great evil.

22 For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart wherein he hath laboured under the jun?

23 For all his days are forrows, and his travel griet; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 ¶ There is nothing better for a man than that he thould eat and drink, and that he should make his foul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

25 For who can cat, or who elfe can haiten bereunto more than I? 26 For Gos giveth to a man that is good in his tight, wildom and knowledge, and jey : but to the inner he giveth travel, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to bim that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of (pirit.

faith the LORD: shall not my foul be avenged on fuch a nation as this?

30 1 A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land.

31 The prophets prophetic falily, and the priests bear rule by their means, and my people love to have it fo: and what will they do in the end thereof?

CHAP. VI. Enemiel fent against Julab, &c.

Ye children of Benjamin, gather your felves to flee out of the audit of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa: and set up a fign of fire in Bethhaccerim: for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion, to a comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their slocks shall come unto her: they shall pitch their tents against the round about: they shall feed every one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war against her : arise, and let us go up at noon: wo unto us, for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out

5 Arife, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 ¶ For thus hath the LORD of hosts faid, Hew ye down trees, and calt a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited, she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and ipoil is heard in her, before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou infructed, O Jerusalem, left my foul depart from thee: left I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 Thus faith the LORD of hofts, They fhall throughly glean the remnant of 16-rael as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets, to To whom that! I speak and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcifed, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach: they have no delight in it.

It Therefore lam full of the fury of the LORD: I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the allembly of young men to-gether: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with bim that is full of days.

12 And their noules shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, faith

the LORD.

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them, every one is given to covetoulnels; and from the prophet even unto the priett, every one dealeth faifly.

14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people flightly, laying, Peace, peace, when there is no peace, 15 Were they affamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I vint them, they shall be cast down, faith the LORD.

16 Thus faith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and fee, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls: but they faid, We will not walk therain. 17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying,

Hearken to the found of the trumpet : but they faid, We will not hearken.

18 ¶ Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among 19 Hear, O earth, behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not bearkned unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba? and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your facrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus faith the LORD, Behold, I will lay thumbling-blocks before this people, and the fathers and the fons together shall fall upon them : the neighbour and his friend fliall perifh.

22 Thus faith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north-country, and a great nation shall be raised from the fides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on how and Spear: they are cruel, and have no mercy : their voice roreth like the fea, and they ride upon horses, set in aray as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy

26 ¶ O daugnter of my people, gird for an only fon, most bitter lamentation . for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us, CHAP. VII The Jews are called to repentance, &cc.

He word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, faying,

2 Stand in the gate of the Lords house, and proclaim there this word, and any, Hear the word of the LORD, all 70 of Judah, that enter in at their gates to worfhip the LORD.

3 Thus laith the LORD of hofts, the God of Ifrael, Amend your ways, and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, faying, The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD are thafe.

f For if ye throughly amend your ways, and you doings; if ye throughly execute judgment between a man and his neigh-

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the father es, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt :

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever,

8 n Behold, ye truft in lying words, that cannot profit.

9 Will ye iteal, murder, and commit adultery, and fwear falfly, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

to And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and fay, We are delivered to do all thefe abominations?

11 Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? behold, even I have feenit, faith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto my place which was in Silloh, where I fet my name at the first, and see what I did to it, for the wickedness of my people I frae!

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early, and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not :

14 Therefore will I do unto this house which is called by my name, wherein ye truft, and unto the place which I gave to you, and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my fight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole leed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me; for I will not hear thee.

17 % Seeft thou not what they do in the cities of Judah, and in the treets of Terufalem ?

18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drinkofferings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 Do they provoke me to anger? faith the LORD do they not provoke themicives to the confusion of their own faces?

26 Therefore thus faith the Lord GoD, Behold, mine anger and my fury thall be poured out upon this place, upon man and upon heaft, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

God of Israel, Put your burnt-offerings Ifrael, Put your burnt-offerings unto your facrifices, and cat fleth

22 For 1 spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt-offerings or facrinces, 23 But this thing commanded I them, faying: Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in a'l the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you

24 But they hearkned not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counfels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not ferward

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day, I have even fent unto you all my fervants the prophets, daily rifing up early, and fending them:
26 Yet they hearlened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardned their neck. they did worfe than their fathers.

27 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them, but they will not hearken to thee : thou shalt also call unto them, but they will not answer thee

28 But thou fhal' fay unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God. nor receiveth correction: truth is perifhed, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 9 Cut off thine hair, O Jerufalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forfaken the generation of his wrath,

30 For the children of Judah has done evil in my fight, faith the LORE they have fet their abominations in th house which is called by my name, t

21 And they have built the high plac of Tothet, which is in the valley of the fon of Hinrom, to burn their ions and their daughters in the fire, which I com manded them not, neither came it into my heart.

32 1 Therefore behold, the days come faith the LORD, that it shall no more be of Hinnom, but the valley of the fon for they shall bury in Tupliet, till there be no place:

33 And the carcales of this people shall he meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the bealts of the earth, and none shall

34 Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladnels, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride; los the land shall be desolate

CHAP VIII.

The Jews calamity, &c.
T that time, faith the LORD, they fhall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bone; of the priefts, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem cut of their graves.

2 And they shall spread them before the fun, and the moon, and all the hold of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have ferved, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have fought, and whom they have worshipped': they shall not be gathered, nor be buried, they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

3 And death shall be chosen rather than life, by all the refidue o' them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven then, faith the LORD of hofts.

4 1 Moreover, thou fhalt fay unto them, Thus faith the LORD, Shall they fail, and not arife? shall he turn away, and not return ?

Why then is this people of Jerufalem fliden back, by a perpetual backfliding? they hold talk deceit, they refule to return.

6 I hearkned and heard, but they frake not aright : no man repented him of his wickedness, faying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the batt'e.

7 Yea, the fork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times, and the turtle, and the crane, and the fwallow observe the time of their coming; but my proble know not the judgment of the LORD. 8 How do ye fay, We are wife, and the

The type of the girdle, &cc.

Hus faith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loyns, and put it not in water.
2 So I got a girale, according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loyns.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the fecond time, faying, 4 Take the girdle that thou halt got, which frupon thy loyns, and arife, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

s so I went and hid it by Euphrates the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pais after many days that the LORD laid unto nie, Artie, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hid

7 Then I went to Euphrates and digged and took the girdle from the place when I had hid it; and behold, the girdle wa marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came

unto me, faying,
9 Thus faith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusaiem.

to This evil people which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the i.nagination of their heart, and walk after other gods to lerve them, and to worthing them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

it For as the girdle cleaveth to the loyns of a man sto have I caufed to cleave unto me the whole house of lirael, and the whole home of Judah, faith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praire, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 If Therefore thou shalt speak upto them this word, Thus earth the Long God of Ifrael, Every bottle fital be filled with wine: and they fital fay into thee, Do we not certainly know, that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus faith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings lit upon Davids throne, and the priefts, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerufalem with drunkennels.

14 Aud I will dain them one against another, even the fathers and the ions together, faith the LORD . I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.

15 ¶ Hear ye, and give ear, be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken. 16 Give glory to the LORD your God before he can'e driknes, and before your feet flumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make is gros darkness.

17 But it ye will not hear it, my foul frall weep in fectet places for your pride, and mine eye shall weep fore, and run down with tears, because the Lords flock is carried away captive.

18 Say unto the king, and to the queen, Humble your selves, lit down; for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

19 The cities of the futh shall be shut up, and none fall open them; ludah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away caprive

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beatiful flock ?

The grievous famine, &c.

The word of the Lord that came to

Jeremiah concerning a Juda's mourneth, and the gates thereof languish, they are black unto the ground, and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

3 And their nobles have fent their little ones to the waters, they came to the pits. and found no water, they returned with their veffels empty: they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads. Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forlook it, because there was no grais. 6 And the wild affes did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons : their eyes did fail because there was no grais.

7 ¶ O LORD, though our iniquities testific against us, do thou it for thy names fake: for our backflidings are many, we have finned against thee.

8 O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldit thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a way-faring man, that turneth alide to tarry for a night

Why mouldit thou be as a man aftonied, as a mighty man that cannot fave? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midit of us, and we are called by thy name, leave us cry, and when they offer burnt-offering and an oblation, I will not accept them; but I will confume them by the fword, and by the famine, and by the pethlence, 13 | Then faid I, Ah Lord God, behold, the prophets fay unto them, Ye thall not fee the fword, neither shall ye have tamine, but I will give you affured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD faid unto me, The prophets prophefie lies in my name, I fent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither ipake unto them : they prophesie unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus faith the LOND concerning the prophets that prophelie in my name, and I fent them not, yet they fay, Sword and tamine shall not be in this land, By fword and famine shall those prophets be confumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophelie, shall be cast out in the streets of lerutalem, because of the famine, and the fword, and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their fons, nor their daughters; for I will pour their wickednels upon them.

17 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them, Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach with a very grievous blow.

18 If 1 go forth into the field, then behold the flain with the fword; and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are fick with famine; yea, both the pro-phet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

19 Hait thou utterly rejected Judah ? hath thy foul lothed Zion? why hait thou imitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble.

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers : for we have finned against thee,

21 Do not abhor us, for thy names fake, do not diffrace the throne of thy glory ; remember, break not thy covenant with us

22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee; for thou halt made all these things.

2 Erquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us, (for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babyien maketh war againit us ; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

2 Then faid Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah,

4 Thus faith the LORD God of Ifrael, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of was that are in your hands, wherewith ye figure against the king of Babylon, and againe the Chaldeans, which beliege you without the walls, and I will affemble them into the midit of this city s And I my felf will fight against you with an sutifretched hand, and with a frong arm, even in anger, and in tury, and in great with.

6 And I will imite the inhabitants of this city, both man and neaft : they fliail

and attenwards, faith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Jugan, and his fervarts, and the people, and fuse as are left in this city from the peft.lence, from the fword, and from the familie, is-to the hand of Nebuchadrezvar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their eremies, and into the hand of those that fe. k their life, and he shall sinute them with the edge of the sword : he shall not spare chem, nedler have pity, nor have mercy.

8 f And unto this people thou fhalt fay, Thus tail the Lorr. Beack, I fet before you the way of live, and the way of dezh.
9 He that abuseth in this city, thall die

by the tword, and by the famine, and by the petitience: out he that g ethout, and talleth to the Chaldenaus that hence you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey to For I have fet my face against this city for evil, and not for good, taken the LORD; it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. tr f And touching the house of the king or Judah, Ay, Hear ye the word of the LORD.

12 O house of David, thus faith the LORD, Execute judgment in the morning, and deliver bim that is ipoiled, out of the hand of the oppreilor, left my fury go out like hre, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold, I am against thee O inha-bitant of the valley, and rock of the plane, faith the Lopp; which fay, Who shall faith the LORE; which fay, Who shall come down against us? or who shall en-

An exportation to repentance, &c.

Ilus faith the LORD, Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And lay, Hear the word of the LORi), O king of Judah, that littell upon the throne of David, thou, and thy fervants, and thy people that enter in

by these gates;
3 Thus saith the LORD, Execute ye judgment and rightecuine's, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppreffor: and do no wrong, do no vio-lence to the thranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, newher shed innocent blood in this place,

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house, kings atting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots, and on hories, he, and his fervants, and his people.

s But it ye will not hear thele words, I fweer by my self, faith the Loun, that this house hall become a deiolation.

6 For thus faith the Louis unto the kings house of Judah, Thou art Galead un's me, and the head of Lebangs, set furely I will make thee a wilderreis, and cities which are not inhabite.

7 And I will prepare destrovers again: thee, every one with his weapons, and they half cut down thy choice cedars, and calt them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall pais by this city, and they mall lay every man to his

14 I have feen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they ftrengthen also the hands of evil doers, and the most of the manual Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus faith the LORD of holts concerning the prophets, Behold, 1 will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jenualem is pro-fanencis gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus faith the LORD of hofts,
Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophetic unto you; they make you vain: they fpeak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They fay still unto them that de-spife me, The LORD bath said, Ye shall have peace; and they fay unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you,

18 For who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word, who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind, it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart : in the latter days ye mall confider at perfectly.

CHAP. XXIV.

The type of good and bad figs, &c.

The LORD shewed me, and behold, two baskets of figs were fet before the temple of the LORD, after that Ne buchadrezzar king of Babylon had mrried away captive Jeconiah the fon of Je-hoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and imiths from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket bad very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket bad very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were io bad.

3 Then faid the LORD unto me, What feeft thou, Jeremiah? and I faid, Figs: the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil. 4 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, faying,

5 Thus faith the LORD the God of Ifrael, Like thele good figs, fo wal I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have fent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

5 For I will fet mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land, and I will build them, and not pull thems down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the Lond, and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart,

8 ¶ And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil: (furely thus faith the LORD) so will give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jeruialem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land

The Jews disobedience reproved, &c. He word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the fon of lofiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon:

2 The which feremiah the prophet pake unto all the reople of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerufalem, fay-

a From the thirteenth year of logah the fon of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day (that is the three and twentieth year) the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have footen unto you, rifing early and fpeaking, but ye have not hearkned.

4 And the LORD hath fent unto you all his fervants the prophets, rifing early and lending them, but ye have not heark-ned, nor inclined your ear to hear.

. They (aid, Turn ye again now-every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land, that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers, for ever and ever :

6 And go not after other gods to ferve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands, and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkned unto me, faith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 n Therefore thus faith the Lorn of holts, Because we have not heard my words, 9 Behold, I will fend and take all the families of the north, faith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon my fervant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about. and will utterly destroy them, and make them an aftonishment, and an histing, and perpetual defolations, to Moreover, I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladnels, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the found of the mil-ftones, and the tight of the candle.

it And this whole land shall be a defo. lation, and an aftenishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon feventy years.

12 And it shall come to pass when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that na-tion, faith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and will make it perpetual delolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced a-gainst it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophetied against all the nations.

14 For many nations and great kings shall ferve themselves of them also: and will recompenie them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands

15 % For thus faith the LORD God of Hirael unto me, Take the wine-cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I fend thee, to drink it.

16 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will fend among them:

17 Then took I the cup at the LORDs hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had fent me

Teremiab exhortest to repensance, &c.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiatime this world from the Lokio, faying,

2. Thus faith the LORD, Stand in the court of the LORDs house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORDs house, all the words that I command thee to fpeak unto them; diminish not a word:

3 It so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil which I propose to do unto them, because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shart tay unto them, Thus faith the LORD, It ye will not hearken to me to walk in my law, which I have let before you,

To hearken to the words of my fervants the prophets, whom I fent unto you, both rifing up early, and fending them

6 Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curie to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priefts, and the prophets, and all the people, heard Jeremiah ipeaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 ¶ Now it came to pais, when Jeremish had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded bins to fpeak unto all the people, that the priefts, and the prophets, and all the people took and the properties, and an the people took him, faying, Thou fhalt furely die, 9 Why haft thou prophesed in the name of the LORD, faying. This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be defolate without an inhabitant? and all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD,

10 9 When the princes of Judah heard thele things, then they came up from the kings house unto the house of the Loan, and fote down in the entry of the new gate of the LORDs boufe

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets anto the princes, and to all the people, faying, This man is worthy to size, for he hath prophetical against this city, as ye have heard with your ears. 12 f Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes, and to all the people, faying, The house, and against this city, all the words that we have heard. amend your ways, and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God, and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced again & you.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye thall turely bring innecent blood upon your telves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD bath sent me unto you, to speak all these words in your cars. 16 ¶ Then said the princes, and all the People unto the priests, and to the pro-phets, Th s man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the

47 Then role up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, faying, 18 Micah the Morathite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying. Thus saith the Lord of holts, Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jeruialem thall become heaps, and the mountain of the house, as the high places of the forest

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah, and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and befought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure great evil against our fouls.

20 And there was also a man that prophelied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the fon of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophetied against this city, and against this land, according to all the words of Jeremiah.

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes heard his words, the king fought to put him to death; but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt.

22 And Jehoiakim the king fent mer. into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the fon of Achbor, and sertain men with him into Egypt.

2: And they fet forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim king, who flew him with the fword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless, the hand of Ahikam the fon of Shaphan, was with Jeremial, that they should not give him into the hand of the people, to put him to death.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not ferve the fame Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, faith the LORD, with the fword, and with the familie, and with the pestilence, until I have confumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your inchanters, nor to your forcerers, which speak unto you, laying, Ye shall not ferve the king of Babylon: ic For they prophesse a lie unto you. to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and ye should perifh.

II But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and ferve him, those will I let remain ftill in their own land, faith the LORD, and they shall till it, and dwell therein. 12 ¶ I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to allahele words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and ferve him and his reople, and live.

13 Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the fword, by the famine, and by the pettilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not lerve the king of Babylon? 14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, faying, Ye shall not serve the king of Ba-

Hananiabs false prophecy, &c. A Nd it came to pass the lame year, in A the beginning of the reign of Zede-kiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fitth month, that Hananiah the ion of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the Lonn, anthe presence of the priefts, and or all the people, laying,

2 Thus speaketh the Lonn of hofts, the God of kirael, faying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Withintwo full years will I bring again into this place all the vefiels of the Lonn houle, that Nebuchadaczzar king of Babylon took away from this place, of Babylon took away from this place. of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon.

4 And I will bring again to this place, Jecoman the ion of Jehotakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, faith the Lord; for I will break the yoke of the king of

s I Then the prophet Jeremiah faid unto the prophet Hananian, in the prefence of the priefts, and in the presence of all the people that flood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah faid, Amen : the LORD do fo, the BORD perform thy words which thou hait prophefied, to bring again the vefiels of the Lords house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless, hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the peeple, me, and before thee of old, prophefied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

the famine, and the pettilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pe-Itilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curle, and an aftonishment, and an hiffing, and a reproach among all the nations, whither I have driven them : 19 Because they have not hearkned to my words, faith the LORD, which I fent unto them by my fervants the prophets, would not hear, faith the LORD.

20 9 Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have fent from Jerufalem to Babylon:

21 Thus felth the LORD of holts, the God of I rael, of Anao the fon of Ko-laiah, and of Zedekiah the fon of Maafetah, which prophetie a lie unto you in my name, Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he thall tlay them before your eyes.

22 And of them shall be taken up a curie by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, faying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah, and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon rosted in the fire.

23 Because they have committed vil-lany in lifael, and have committed a-dultery with their neighbours wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them, even I know, and any a witness, faith the LORD.

14 1 Thus thalt thou also speak to Shemajah the Nehelamite, faying

25 Thus speakern the LORD of hosts, the God of Ifraet, faying, Because thou haft fent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the fon of Maaferah the prieft, and to all the priefts, faying, 26 The LORD hath made thee prieft in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldst put him in prison, and in the stocks:

27 Now therefore why haft thou not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himlelf a prophet to you?

28 For therefore he fent unto usis Babylon, faying, This captioity is long, built, ye houses and dwell in tom, and plant gardens, and east the fruit of them.

29 And Zephaniah the prieft read this letter in the ears of Jereniah the prophet.

30- 1 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, faying, 31 Send to all them of the captivity, faying, Thus faith the LORD, concerning Shemai-ah the Nehelamite, Because that Shemaia: hath prophetied unto you, and I fent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie: 32 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Be-evil to conteupon them.

24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it, and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what thou hast spoken is come to pass, and behold thou sees it. 25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord

GOD, Buy thee the field for money, tand take witnesses: for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. 26 I Then came the word of the LORD.

unto jeremiah, faying, 27 Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: Is there any thing too hard 28 Therefore thus faith the LORD, Be+ hold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Ne-buchadrezzar king of Babylon, and heshall take it.

29 And the Chaldeans that fight against this city, faall come and fet fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, uponwhose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

A gracious return promifed,

Code Wermit:

30 For the children of Ifrael and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth : for the children of Ifrael have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, faith the LORD:

31 For this city hath been to me, as a provocation of mine anger and of my tury, from the day that they built it, even unto this day; that I should remove it from before my sace: 32 Because of all the evil of the children of lirael, and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their prietts, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabi-tants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face; though I taught them, rifing up early, and teaching them, yet they have not hearkned to receive instruction:

34 But they fet their abominations in the house (which is called by my name) to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the ion of Hinnum, to cause their sons and their daughters to pals through the fire unto Molech, which I commanded them not, nerther came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination to cause Judah to fin.

36 ¶ And now therefore thus faith the LORD, the God of Hirsel, concerning this city, whereof ye fay, It shall be delive-red into the hand of the king of Babylon, by the fword, and by the famine, and by the pettilence :

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely.

38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God.
39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and obtheir children after them.

40 And I will make an everlafting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

Yea, I will rejoyce over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land affuredly, with my whole heart, and with my whole foul.

42 For thus faith the LORD, Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, to will I bring upon themall the good that I have promised them. 42 And fields thall be bought in this land, whereof ye fay, It is defolate without man or beaft, it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

44 Men shall buy fields for money; and fubscribe evidences, and feal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerufalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the fouth : for faith the LORD

13 In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the fouth, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerufalem, and in the cities of Judah thall the flocks pats again under the hands of him that telleth larth the LORD.

14 Behold, the days come, faith the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promifed unto the house of Ifrael, and to the house of Judah.

will I cause the Branch of righteoutness to grow up unto David, and he shall execute judgment and righteoulnels in the land.

16 In those days fhall Judah be saved, and Jerufalam fhall dwe: I fafely : this is the name wherewith the thall be called, The LORD our righteonihers, 17 For thus faith the LORD, David hall fever want a man to fit upon the ahrone of the haufe of Ifrael.

18 Neither mall the prietts the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt-offerings, and to kindle meat-offerings, and to do facrifice continually.

19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, faying, 20 Thus faith the LORD, If you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there flould not be day and night in their leafon:

21 I ben may also my covenant be broken with David my fervant, that he should not have a fon to reign upon his throne, and with the Levites the priefts, my ministers.

22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbred, neither the fand of the fea measured : so will I multiply the feed of David my fervant, and the Levites that minister unto me

2. Moreover, the word of the LORD

came to Jeremiah, faying,

24 Confiderest thou not what this peo-ple have spoken, saving, The two rami-lies which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cost them off? thus they have despited my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus faith the LORD, It my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth :

26 Then will I calt away the feed of Facob, and David my fervant, So that 1 will not take any of his feed to be rulers over the feed of Abraham, Ifaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

A Captivity proposited, &c.

The word which came unto Jeremiah, from the LORD, (when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his auminion, and all the people fought against Jerusalem, and against all the ci-rael, Go, and speak to Zedekish king of Judah, and tell him, Thus faith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he Mail burn it with fire.

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but fliate furely be taken, and delivered 1640 his hand, and thene eyes that! behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou mait go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zetekiah king of Judah, Trus tauh the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the 5 But thou fhalt die in peace; and with the burnings of thy fathers the former kings which were before thee, fo thall they burn odours for thes, and they will lament thee, Jaying, Ah lard: for I have pronounced the word, faith the LURD.

6 Then Jerennah the prophet spake all thefe words unto Zadekich king of Judah in Jerufalem.

7 When the lung of Rabylons army fought against ferulaten, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, againit Lachish, and against Azekah; for thefe defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 This is the word that came unto leremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekish had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them;

9 That every man thould let his manfervant, and every man his maid-fervant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewell, free, that none fhould ferve himfelt of them, towit, of a Jew his brother.

to Now when all the princes, and all the people which had entred into the covenant, heard that every one should let his man-fervant, and every one his maidfervant go free, that none should ferve themselves or them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

It But alterwards they turned and caufed the fervants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for fervants and for handmaids.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, faying, 13 Thus faith the LORD, the God of Ilrael, I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bond-men, faying, 14 At the end of feven years, let ve go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been fold unto thee: and when he hath ferved thee six years, thou that let him go free from thee : but your lathers "earkwed not unto me, neither incaned their car.

is And ye were now turned, and had ! one right in my light, in proclaiming perty every man to his neighbour, and enad made a covenant before me in the ou'e which is called by, my name, 16 But we turned and pollured my name, and cauted every man his fervant, and e-ery man his handmaid, whom he had et at liberty at their pleasure, to return, I nd brought them into lubjection; to be nto you for fervants and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus faith the LORD, 17 Therefore thus, ratte the control of have not hearkned unto me, in proier, and every man to his neighbour : ehold, I proclaim a liberty for you, faith Hae LORD, to the fword, to the peftience, and to the famine, and I will make ou to be removed into all the kingdoms the earth. 18 And I will give the men that have ranigrefied my covenant, which have which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, and palled beween the parts thereof, 19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Judah, and the princes of Judah, and the priefts, ind all the people of the Jand which pared between the parts of the calf, 20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of hem that feek their life ; and their dead podies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beafts of the arth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Jusah, and his princes will I give into the hand of heir enemies, and into the hand of them hat feek their life, and into the hand of he king of Babylons army which are sone up from you. 22 Behold, I will command, saith the

ORD, and cause them to return to this ity, and they shall fight against it, and ake it, and burn it with hie, and I will nake the cities of Judah a defolation without an inhabitant

CHAP. XXXV. The Rechabites obedience, &cc

He word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, in the days of lehoiakim the ion of Joliah, king of Juah, laying,

2 Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink. 3 Then I took Jaazaniah the fon of Jetemiah, the ion of Habazeniah, and his brethren, and all his fors, and the whole toule of the Rechabites.

4. And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the ons of Hanan the fon of Igdaliah a man of God, which mas by the chamber of the princes, which mas above the champer of Maalerah the fon of Sharlum, the keeper of the door.

2 And I fet before the foos of the houfe of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I faid unto them, Drink ye wine. 6 But they faid. We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the fon of Rechab our father commanded us, faying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your fons for ever

7 Neither shall ve build house, nor fow feed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days ye shall dwell in tents, that ye may live many days in the land where ye be ftrangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the ion of Rechab our father, in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our lons. nor our daugnters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor feed.

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

ti But it came to pass, when Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we faid, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for sear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for sear of the Army of the Syrians: fo we dwell at Jerufaleni.

12 If Then came the word of the the LORD unto Jeremish, faying, 13 Thus faith the LORD of hosts, the God of Ifrael, Go and tell the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerufalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? faith the LORD.

14 The words of Jonadab the fon of Rechab, that he commanded his fons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their fathers commandment: standing I have spoken unto you, rifing early, and speaking, but he hearkness not unto me is I have fent also unto you all my fervants the prophers, rifing up early and lending them, laying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to ferve them, and ye shall dwell in the land, which I have given to you, and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkned unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the fon of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkned unto me:

17 Therefore thus faith the LORD God of heits, the God of Ifrael, Behold. I will bring upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, all the evil that I have pronounced against them : because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard, and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 ¶ And Jeremiah faid unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus faith the LORD of hosts, the God of Mael, Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and hept all his precepts and done according unto all that he hath commanded you : 19 Therefore thus faith the LORD of hoffs, the God of Irrael, Jonadab the for of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

HAP XXXVI. Jeremsiabs prophecy poritten, &c. Nd it came to pais in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the fon of Joliah king Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, faying, 2. Take thee a roll of a book, and write efferein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Mrael, and against Judsh, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Joliah, even unto this day.

3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpole to do unto them: that they may teturn e-very man from his evil way, that I may orgive their iniquity and their fin.

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the fon of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

7 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up, I cannot go into the house of the LURD:

6 Therefore go thou and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD, in the ears of the people in the LORDs house upon the fasting-day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah, that come out of their cities.

7 It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will re-turn every one from his evil way; for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people 8 And Baruch the fon of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the pro-phet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORDs house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year Jehorakim the son of Jouah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they pro-claimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Lerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerufalem.

to Then read Baruch in the book, the words of Jeremian in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah, the fon of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORDs house, in the ears of all the people.

11 When Michaian the fon of Gemariah, the fon of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 11 Then he went down into the kings house into the scribes chamber, and lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the fon of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the ion of Achbor, and Gemariah the fon of Shaphan, and Zede kiah the ion of Hanamah, and all th 12 Then Michaigh declared unto them al the words that he had heard when Baruch came unto them.

15 And they faid unto him, Sit down now, and read it in out ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

to Now it came to pass when they ad heard all the words, they were ahad fraid both one and other, and faid unto Baruch, We will furely tell the king of all these words. 17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink its the book.

19 Then faid the princes unto Baruch, Go hide thee, thou and Jeremiah, and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king fent Jehudi to fet the roll, and he took it out of Elishama the scribes chamber, and Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king

22 Now the king fat in the winterhouse, in the ninth month; and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him, 23 And it came to pass that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves. cut it with the pen-knife, and calt it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was confumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his fervants that heard all thefe words,

25 Neverthelefs, Einathan, and Delagah, and Gemariah, had made intercession to the king, that he would not burn the roll, but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the fon of Hammelech, and Seraigh the fon of Azriel, and Snelemiah the fon of Asdeel, to take Barneh the foribe, Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hia them,

27 f Then the word of the LORD came to jeremiah (after that the king had burnt the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremian faying, 28 Fake thee again another rol', and write in it all the formet words that were n the first roll, which Jehoiskim the king ! of Judah hath burnt.

29 And thou shalt fay to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus faith the LORD, Thou haft burnt this roll, faying, Why haft thou written therein, faying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and detroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beaft

20 Therefore thus faith the LORD of fehoiakim king of Judah, He mali have none to fit upon the throne of David, and us dean body shall be cast out in the day othe heat, and in the night to the frost.

27 And I will punish him and his feed, and his fervants for their iniquity, and I vill bring upon them, and upon the in-labitants of Jeruialem, and upon the nen of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they hearkred not.

32 ¶ Then took Jeremiah another roll, end gave it to Baruch the fcribe the fon of Neriah, who wrote therein from the nouth of Jeremiah, all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah 1ad burnt in the fite, and there were adled besides unto them many like words. C H A P. XXXVII.

The Chatdeans fiege raifed, &c. A Nd king Zedekiah the fon of Josiah reigned in stead of Coniah the son Jeholakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar sing of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

2 But neither he, nor his fervants, nor he people of the land, did hearken unto he words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

2 And Zedekiah the king fent Jehucal he son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the on of Maaleiah the prieit, to the prophet feremiah, faying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out imong the people: for they had not pu!

Then Pharaohs army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans hat belieged Jerusalem, heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem. 6 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD into the prophet Jeremiah, faying, 7 Thus faith the LORD, the God of freel. Thus faith ye lay to the king of fudah, that fent you unto me to enquire if me, Behold, Pharaohs army which is ome forth to help you, thall return to gypt into their own land, And the Chaldeans shall come again, ind fight against this city, and take it, nd burn it with fire. of Thus faith the LORD, Deceive not our felves, faying, The Chaldeans shall urely depart from us: for they shall not to For though ye had fmitten the thole army of the Chaldeans that fight gainft you, and there remained but founded men among them, 2st should they rife up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire, it I And it came to pass that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaohs army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the mids of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Snelemiah, the son of Hananiah, and he took Jeremiah the prophet, faying, Thom falleit away to the Chardeans.

14 Then faid Jeremiah, It is false, I fall not away to the Chaldeans: but he hearkned not to him : fo Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

to Wherefore the princes were wroth with leremiah, and fmote him, and put him in prifon in the houle of Jonathan the feribe; for they had made that the pri Con.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entred into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days:

17 Then Zedekiah the king fent, and took him out; and the king asked him feeretly in his honfe, and faid, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah faid, There is: for, faid he, thou shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, 18 Mcreover, Jeremiah faid unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against day servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, faying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land

ny lord the king, let my fupplication, I pray thee. be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, left I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah re-mained in the court of the prison. C H A P. XXXVIII.

Feremiab put into the dungeon, &c.

Hen Shephatiah the fon of Mattan, and Gedaliah the fon of Pashur, and Jucal the fon of Shelemiah, and Palhue the fon of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, faying,

2 Thus faith the LORD, He that re-maineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the petilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans, shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live. 3. Thus saith the LORD, This city shall furely be given into the hand of the king ! of Babylons army, which shall take it,

4 Therefore the princes faid unto the king, We befeech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them : for this man tecketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt.

Then Zedckiah the king faid, Behold, he is in your hand : for the king is not be that can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and calt him into the dungeon of Malchiah the fon of Hammelech that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jere-miah with cerds. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire : fo Jeremiah funk in the mire.

7 W Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuche which was in the kings house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon, I the king then fitting in the gate of Benjamin

Esed-melech went forth out of the kings houle, and frake to the king, faving, 9 My lord the king, thefe men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have call into the dungeon, and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is, for there is no more bread in the city.

to Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon before he die.

It So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old 62st clouts, and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to

Jeremiah. Said unto Jeremiah, Put now theft old caft clouts, and rotten rags under thine armholes, under the cords. And Jeremian did fo.

12 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon, and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison. 14 9 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third enery that is in the house of the LORD; and the king said unto Jeremish, I will ask thee a thing : hide nothing from me, is Then Jeremiah faid unto Zedekiah, is Then Jeremiah faid unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, will thou not furely put me to death? and if I give thee countel, wilt thou not hearken unto me

16 So Zedekiah the king fware fecretiy unto Jeremiah, faving As the Lord liveth, that made us this foul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the nand of their men that feek thy life.

r" Then laid Jeremial, unto Zedekiah. Taus faith the LORD the God of hofts, the God of Ifrae', It thou walt a jured go forth unto the king of Babylons prin ces, then thy foul hall live, and this cu shall not be burnt with hie, and the shalt live, and thine houle,

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to th king of Babylotis princes, then thall th city be given into the hand of the Chalde ans, and they shall burn it with fire, ar thou fhalt not elcape out of their hand. 19 And Zedekiah the king faid unto J remian, I am atraid of the Jews that ar fallen to the Chaldeans, 1-ft they delive me into their hand, and they mock me 20 But Jeremiah faid, They that no deliver thee : obev, I befeech thee, th voice of the LURD, which I peak unt thee; fo it shall be well unto thee, an thy foul fhall live. 21 But it thou refuse to go forth, this . the word that the LORD hath shewed me

22 And behold, all the women that ar lett in the king of Judahs house, the brought forth to the king of Bany lons princes, and those momen shall fay Thy friends have fet thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sun! in the mire, and they are turned awa;

22 So they fhall bring ou, all thy wive and thy children to the Chaldeans, and thou thalt not escape out of their hand but thalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon : and thou thalt caufe this city to be burnt with fire.
24 9 Then fand Zedekiah unto Jere-

24 f Then faid Zedekiah unto Jere-miah, Let no man know of these words and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and fay unto thee, Declare unto at now what thou haft faid unto the kinghide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king faid unto thee :

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, 1 prefented my fupplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathans house to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremuch, and asked him, and he told them according to all thefe words that the king had commanded: fo they left off speak-ing with him, for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremish abode in the court of the prison, until the day that Jeru'alem was taken, and he was there when lerulaiem was taken.

CHAP. XXXIX. gerusalem is taken, &c.

N the ninth year of Zelekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Ne-buchadrezzar king of Babylen, and all his army against Jerulalem, and the beinged it.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, - e ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

a And all the princes of the king of labylon came in, and fat in the middlelate, even Nergal-fharezer, Samgar ne-o, Sarfechim, Rab-faris, Nergal-fha-ezer, Rab-mag, with all the refidue of he princes of the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pais, that when Zeckiah the king of Judah faw there, and it the men of war, then they fled, and ent forth out of the city by night, by ne way of the kings garden, by the gate etwixt the two walls, and he went out ie way of the plain.

5 But the Chaldeans army pursued after nem, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains Jericho: and when they had taken im, they brought him up to Nebuchadezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the ind of Hamath, where he gave judg-hent upon him. 6 Then the king of Babylon flew the yes: also the king of Babylon slew all e nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover, he put out Zedekiahs yes, and bound him with chains to carry im to Babyion.

8 ¶ And the Chaldeans burnt the kings pule, and the houses of the people with fire, id brake down the walls of Jerusalem. Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of e guard carried away captive into Baion the remnant of the people that re-ained in the city, and thole that fell way, that all to him, with the rest of e people that remained.

to But Nebuzar-adan the captain of e guard left of the poor of the people hich had nothing, in the land of Judah, id gave them vineyards and fields at e same time,

II T Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Baton gave charge concerning Jeremiah Nebuzar-adan the captain of the 13rd, faying, 12 Take him, and look well to him, and him no harm, but do unto him even he shall fay unto thee.

13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the ard fent, and Nebushasban, Rab-faris, d Nergal-marezer, Rab-mag, and all

e king of Babylons princes:

14 Even they fent, and took Jeremiah t of the court of the prison, and comitted him unto Gedaliah the fon of Aka, the fun of Shaphan, that he buld carry him home: fo he dwelt aong the people.

15 Il Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, while he was thut up in s court of the prison, faying,

6 Go and speak to Ebed-melech the hiopian, saying, Thus saith the Lord hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will ing my words upon this city for evil, d not for good, and they shall be so-aplished in that day before thee. 7 But I will deliver thee in that day, th the LORD, and thou shalt not be ren into the hand of the men of whom ju art afraid.

18 For I will farely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee, because thou haft put thy trutt in me, faith the LORD.

CHAP. XL.

Feremiab fet free by Nebuzar-adan, &C. He word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, had let him go from Ramah, when he had ta-ken him, being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon,

2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and faid unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place,

3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath faid: because ye have finned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now behold, I loofe thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand: if it feem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will look well unto thee: but if it feem ill unto thee to come with me into Babyion, forheat: behold, all the land i be-fore thee: whither it feemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

5 Now while he was not yet gone back, be faid, Go back alfo to Gedaliah the fon of Ahikam, the ion of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wherefoever it feemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him vic-tuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah

the fon of Ahileam to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land,

7 9 Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the ion of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Immael the ion of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the fons of Kareah, and Seraiah the fon of Tanhumeth, and the fons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the fon of a Maa-chathite, they and their men.

o And Gedaliah the fon of Ahikam the ion of Shaphan, iware unto them and to their men, faying, Fear not to ferve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land and ferve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you, to As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah to ferve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and fummer-fruits, and oyl, and put them in your veffels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

tt Likewise when all the Jews that mites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had fet over them Gedaliah the for of Ahikam the fon of Shaphan; 12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and eame to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and fummer-fruits, very much.

13 ¶ Moreover, Johanan the for of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And faid unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammionites hath fent Ishmael the Nethaniah to flay thee? But Gedaliah the ion of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the fon of Kareah fpake to Gedaliah in Mizpah fecretly, faying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will fay Ishmeel the for of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the lews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah periih ?

16 But Gedaliah the fon of Ahikam faid unto Johanan the fon of Kareah, laid unto Johann the for or Kateati, Thou shalt not do this thing, for thou speakest fairly of Ilmanel.

Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ismael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama of the feed contains and the princeposit the king, even toyal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Geda-lish the fon of Ahikam to Mizpah, and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the fon of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and imote Gedaliah the fon of Ahikam the ion of Shaphan with the fword, and flew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass the second day after he had flain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

That there came certain from Schechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and hawing cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD.

& And Ithmael the fon of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpali to meet ther weeping all along as he went: and came to pais as he met them, he fai unto them, Come to Gedaliah the ic of Anikam.

7 And it was so when they came in the midft of the city, that Ishmael the so of Nethaniah slew them, and cast ther into the midst of the pit, he, and the me that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among the that faid unto Ishmael, Slay us not : fo we have treasures in the field, of whea and of barley, and of oyl, and of hony so he forbare, and flew them not a mor. their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had ca all the dead bodies of the men (whor he had flain because of Gedaliah) was i which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Itrael; and Ishmael the fon of Nethaniah filted it with them the were flain.

To Then Ishmael carried away captive all the refidue of the people, that were i Mizpah, even the kings daughters, an all the people that remained in Mizpal whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of th guard had committed to Gedaliah the Nethaniah carried them away captin and departed to go over to the Ammo

11 ¶ But when Johanan the fon of Ka reah, and all the captains of the force that were with him, heard of all the ev! that Ishmael the fon of Nethaniah has done,

12 Then they took all the men; as went to fight with Ishmael the son c Nethaniah, and found him by the grea waters that ere in Gibcon. 12 Now it came to pais, that when al the people which were with Ishmael far Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael has carried away captive from Mizpah, cal about and returned, and went unto Jo hanan the fon of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Methanial escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then took Johanan the fon of Ka reah, and all the captains of the force that were with him, all the remnant o the people whom he had recove ed from Ishmael the fon of Nethaniah, from Miz pah (after that he had flain Gedaliah the fon of Ahikam) even mighty men of war and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs whom he had brought again from Gibeon.

17 And they departed and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt-18 Because of the Chaldeans: for the were afraid of them, because Ishmael the fon of Nethaniah had flain Gedaliah the Ferusalem besieged and taken, &cc.

Edekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerufalem; and his mothers name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eves of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his prefence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pals in the ninth year of his reign, in the teath month, in the teath day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army against Jerusalem, and pit-ohed against it, and built torts against it round about

5 So the city was belieged unto the e-leventh year of king Zedekiah. 6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was fore in the city, to that there was no bread for the people of the land.

Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war ded, and went forth out or the city by night, by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the kings garden (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 ¶ But the army of the Chaldeans purlucd after the king, and overtook Zede-kiah in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was feattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried hum up unto the king of Babylon to Rib-iah in the land of Hamuth; where he gave judgment upon him.

to And the king of Babylon flew the fons of Zeitekiah before his eyes : he flew alio all the princes of Judah in Riblah, and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prifon till the day of his death.

12 ¶ Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month (which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon) came Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard, which ferved the king of Babylon, into Jeruialem,

13 And burns the house of the LORD. and the kings house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men burnt he with fire.

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerufalem

round about

15 ThenN : buzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the relidue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vine-dreffers, and for husbandmen, 1? Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brafs of them to Babylon.

18 The caldrons alfo, and the shovels, and the fouriers, and the bowls, and the fpoons, and all the veffels of brais wherewith they minittred, took they away.

19 And the basons, and the fire-pans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlefticks, and the candlefticks, and the froons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of filver in filver, took the captain of the guard away.

The two pillars, one fea, and twelve bfaien bulls that were under the baies, waich king Solomon had made in the house of the ! ORD : the brais of all their veifels was without weight.

21 And concerning the pillars, the height of onepillar was eighteen cubits, and a filiet of twelve cubits did compais it, and the thickness thereof was four fingers : it was hollow.

23 And a chapiter of brais mas upon it. and the height of one chapiter was five cubits, with net-work and pomegranates upon the chapiters round about, all of brass: the second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto thefe

27 And there were ninety and fix pomegranates on a fide, and all the pomegrahates upon the net-work, were an hundred round about.

24 % And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the fecond prieft, and the three keepers of the door.

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war, and feven men of them that were near the kings person, which were found in the city, and the principal scribe of the hoft, who mustered the people of the land, and three core men or the people of the land that were found in the midit of the

the king of Babylon to Riblan.

27 And the king of Babylon fmote them, and put them to do the in Riblah, in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own farth iprige.

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many scathers; and behold, this vine did bend her roots towards him, and thot forth her branches towards him, that he might water it bythe jurgows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good foil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

o 529 thou, Thus faith the Lord GOD, Shall it proiper? Shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? It shall wither in all the leaves of her fpring, even without great power, or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

to Judah in Jeru blem the defenced.

21 For the king of Babylon Bood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made bis arrows bright, he confulted with images, he looked in the liver.

> At his right hand was the divination for lerufalem to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the claughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint batterine rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a tort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a falle divination in their fight, to them that have Iworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may

unto me, faying, Son of man, there were two women the daughters of one mother.

3 And they committed whoredoms in Egypt, they committed wheredons in their youth: there were their breath prefied, and there they usuited the teats or their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her fitter : and they were mine, and they buc tons and daughters: thus were their names, Samerights Aholah, and Jerufalest Anothbah.

s And Aholah played the light when he was mine, and the doted on her lo-vers, on the Allyrians by neighbours. 6 Which were clothed with bits (aptums and tulers, all of them defreable young men, horsemen riding upon hartes.

7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were the chofen men of Affyria, and with all un whom the doted, with all their idols the defiled her felf.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breafts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

o Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Affyrians, upon whom flie doted, to Thefe discovered her nakedness, they took her fons and her daugnters, and flew her with the fword: and the became tamous among women, for they had executed judgment upon her. ti And when her fifter Aholibah faw this, the was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredome more than her fitter in ber whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the Affyrians ber neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them delirable young inen. Then I law that the was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 And that the increased her whoredoms: for when the faw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chal-

deans pourtrayed with vermilion,

13 Girded with girdles upon their loyns, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity :

v6 And

5 And affeon as me faw them with eyes, the dored upon theut, and fent

19 of the auditiplied her whoredoms, an calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein the had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For the deted upon their paramours, whole field is as the neft of alles, and whole thue is like the the of hories.

at Thus thou calledt to remembrance the lewdness of thy y uth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians, for the paps of thy youth.

22. I Therefore, O Abolibah, thus faith the Lord GOO, Behold, I will rare up thy lovers againtt shee, from whom thy mind is alresheed, and I will bring them against thee on every fide;

23 The Bubylonians, and all the Chaldeans, Pokod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Allyrians with them : al: of them defirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them aiding upon horfes.

34 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an allemply of people which thall fet against thee buckler, and shield, and beimet round about : and I will fet judgment befor them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

25 And I will fet my jealousic against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy noie, and thine ears, and thy remnant shall fall by the fword: they shall take thy fons and thy daughters, and thy refidue shall be devouted by the fire.

26 They hall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

27 Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus faith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated.

29 And they thall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour and shall leave thee naked and bare, and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be diffeovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do thefe things unto thee, becane thou haft gone a whoring after the hattien, and because thou art polluted wir. ir idols.

34 Thou shalt even drink it and finck if out, and thou shalt break the fierds thereof, and plack off thine own breats: for I have spoken it, faith the Lord GOD.

35 Therefore thus faith the Lord GOD, Recause thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also the twenties and by whoredoms, 36 % The LORD fail moreover unto me, Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare who 37 That they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their hidels have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons whom they have also caused their sons whom they have unto me, to pals for them through the fire to devour them.

38 Moreover, this they have done unto me: they have defiled my fanctuary in the fame day, and have profaned my fabbaths.

29 For when they had flain their children to their idols, then they came the tame day into my fanctuary to profane it; and lo, thus have they done in the midit of mine house.

CHAP. XXIV. A Gain in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, faying,

2 Son of man, Write thee the name of the day, even of this fame day: the king of Babylon fet himfelf against Jerusalem this same day.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say us to them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Set on a pot, set it on, and allo pour water into it.

4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder, fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boyl well, and let them feethe the bones it therein.

6 % Wherefore thus faith the Lord GOD, We to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it; bring it out piece by piece, let no lot fall upon it. 7 For her blood is in the midst of her, she set it upon the top of a rock, poured it not upon the ground to sover it with dust:

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance: I have fet her blood upon the rop of a rock, that it should not be covered

9 Therefore thus faith the Lord GOD: Wo to the bloody city, I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, confume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burnt.

It Then fet it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brais of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the four of it may be confunied.

her : her foum hall be in the fire.

12 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to reft upon thee.

t4 I the LORD have spoken it, it shall come to pass, and I will do it, I will not go back, neither will I fpare, neither will repent; according to thy ways, and acwording to thy doings fhall they judge thee,

4 The waters made him great, the deep fet him up on high with her rivers tuc. ning round about his plants, and fent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the

5 Therefore his height was exalted a. bove all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branche became long because of the multitude o' waters, when he shot forth.

6 All the fowls of heaven made their nelts in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beafts of the field bring forth their young, and under his fliadow dwelt all great nations,

Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches; for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him : the fir-trees were not like his bought, and the cheinut-trees were not like his branches; not any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

o I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: fo that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.
10 Therefore thus faith the Lord

GOD, Because thou hast litted up thy felf in height, and he hath fhet up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

it I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen: he shall furely deal with hi have driven him cut for his wickedness.

13 Upon his min scall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beafts of the field shall be upon his branches;

14 To the end that none of all, the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water : for they are all delivered unto death to the nether parts of the earth in the midit of the children of men, with them that go !

Thus faith the Lord GOD, In the day when he went down to the grave, I caufed a mourning, I covered the deep for him, and I reitrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were thayed; and I cauled Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the held fainted for him.

17 1 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, faying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and caft them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 Whom doft thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncir-

20 They shall fall in the midft of them that are flain by the fword : the is delivered to the fword; draw her and all her multitudes.

21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him : they are gone down, they lie uncircumcifed, flain by the fword.

22 Asshur is there and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them

flain, fallen by the fword.

23 Whole graves are let in the fides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them flain, fallen by the fword, which caused terror in the land of the living.

There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them flain, fallen by the fword, which are gone down uncircumcifed into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living, yet have they born their mame with them that go down to

25 They have let her a bed in the midst of the flain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: allof them uncircumcifed, flain by the fword : though their terror was caused in the land of the Living, yet have they born their flishes with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midft or them that be Auin.

26 There is Mesheck, Tubal, and her multitude: her graves are round a-bout kim all of them uncirrumcifed, their terror in the land of the living.

And they shall not lie with the mighty, that are fallen of the uncircumcifed, which are gone down to hell with their weapons of war: and they have their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

18 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midft of the uncircumcifed, and shalt lie with them that are finn with the fword.

29 There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are laid by them that are flain by the fword they shall lie with the uncircumcifed, and with them that go down to the pit,

30 There be the princes of the north all of them, and all the Zidonians, which are gone down with the flain, with their terfor they are ashamed of their might, and they lie uncircumcifed with them that be flain by the sword, and beartheir thame with them that go down to the pit

31 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army flain by the sword faith the Lord GOD. land of the living : and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcifed, with them that are flain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, faith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXXIII. Ezekiel admonished, &c.
Gain the word of the LORD came unto me, faying, 2 Son of man, feak to the children of thy people, and fay unto them. When I bring the fword upon a land, if the reo-ple of the land take a man of their coafts, and fet him for their watchman: 3 If when he feeth the fword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

Then whofoever heareth the found of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the fword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. 5 He heard the found of the trumpet, and took not warning, his blood shall be upon him : but he that taketh warning, mall deliver his foul.

6 But if the watchman fee the fword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people he not warned : if the fword come and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his inionity: but this blood will I require at the watchmans hand thee a watchman unto the house of lirael: therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicken, O wice ked man, thou shall surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man that! die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Neverthelefs, if thou warn the wicleed of his way to turn from it: if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy foul.

to f Therefore, O thou fon of man, speak unto the house of lirael, Thus ye speak, saying, It our transgressions and our fins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live? Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of lizzel?

12 Therefore, thou lon of man, fay unto the children or thy people, The righteoutness of the righteous mall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for bis righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall fay to the rightcousthat he shall furely live : if he trult to his own right cousness, and commit iniquity; all his righteoufness shall not be remembred, but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I fay unto the wicked, Thou malt furely die: if he turn from his fin, and do that which is lawful and right;

is If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the ftatutes of life without committing iniquity; he shall furely live, he shall not die, 16 None of his fins that he hath committed, shall be mentioned unto him : he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall furely live.

17 TY Yet the children of thy people fay. The way of the LORD is not equal : but as for them, their way is not equal.
18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickednets, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby

20 Yet ye fay. The way of the LORD is not equal: O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

21 9 And it came to pals in the I welfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerulalem, came anto me, faying, The city is smitten;
22 Now the hand of the Lord was upofcaped came, and had or ened my mouth until he came to me in the morning, and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the LORD came

anto me, laying, 24 Son Ot man, they that inhabit those wattes of the land of Hirael, ipeak, faying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land : out we are many, the land is given us for inheritance.

Wherefore fay unto them, Thus faith the Lord GOD, Ye cat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and thed blood; and thall ye posses the land?

26 Yeltand upon your tword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbours wife; and shall ye postess the 27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus faith the Lord GOD, As I live, furely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beafts to be devoured: and they that be in the forts and in the caves. hall die of the pettilence.

as For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her itrength shall cease; and the mountains of Itrael shall be defolace, that none shall pais through. 29 Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most defolate, because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 ¶ Alfo thou fon of man, the children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walls, and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, faying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

3t And they come unto thee as the at And they come unto thee as the people caneth, and they fit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with mouth they finew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

22 And lo, thou are unto them as a very loving fong of one that hath a pleafant voice, and can play well on an infrument: for the hear thy words, but they do them not.

33 And when this cometh to pass (lo, it will come) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

A reproof of the shepberds, &c.

No the word of the LORD came unto me, faying, 2 Son of man, prophesie against the to them, Thus faith the Lord GOD unto Ifrael that do feed themfelves: should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 The difeafed have ye not ftrengthmed, neither have ye healed that which was fick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, member have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye fought that which was left : but with force and with cruelty have ye mied them, c And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd; and they became meat to all the be its of the field, when they were icattered.

6 My sheep wandred through all the mountains, and upon every high hill : yea, my flock was icattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did fearch or feek after them;
7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 As Tive, faith the Lord GOD, furely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beaft of the field, because there was no shepeerd. neither did my thepherds fearch for my flock, but the thepherds fed themselves. and fed not my flock:
9 Therefore, Oye hepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

To Thus faith the Lord God, Behold, Itam against the shepherds, and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to ceale from feeding the flock, neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their arouth, that they may not be meat for them.

ti f For thus faith the Lord GOD, Behold, I, even I will both fearch my sheep, and feek them out.

12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; fo will I feek out my theep, and will deliver them out of all places, where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Ifrael by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country,

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Itlie in a good fold, and in a fat patture shall they feed upon the Brountains of lfrael.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, faith the Lord GOD 15 I will feek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will ftrengthen that which was fick : but I will destroy the fat and the strong,

I will feed them with judgment, 17 And as for you, O my flock, thus faith the Lord GOD, Behold, I judge between cattle-and cattle, between the rams and the he-goats.

18 Seemeth it a finall thing unto you, to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye mus tread down with your tect the relidue of your pattures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye nave trodden with your feet : and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet. 20 ¶ Therefore thus faith the LORD

GOD unto them, Behold, I, even I will judge between the fat cattle, and between the lean cattle. 21 Because ye have thrutt with fide and with shoulder, and puint all the defeated with your horns, till ye have feattered them abroad :

22 Therefore will I fave my flock, and they shall no more be a prey, and I will judge between cattle and cattle. 23 And I will let up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my fervant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their mepherd 24 And I the Lord will be their GOD, and my fervant David a prince among them, I the LORD have spoken it 25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil bealt: to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and fleep in the woods.

25 And I will make them and the places round about my hill, a bleffing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his featon: there shall be showers of bleffing.

27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increate, and they shall be fafe in their land, and thall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and de ivered them cut of the hand of those that served themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beasts of the land devour them; but they shall dwell fafety, and none shall make them a fraid : 29 And I will raife up for them a plant of renown, and they that be no more confumed with hunger in the land, nei-ther bear the shame of the heathen any

30 Thus field they know that I the LORD their GOD am with them. and that they, even the house of Ifraci, are my people, faith the Lord GOD.

21 And we my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your GOD, faith the Lord GOD.

The judgment of mount Seir, &c. Oreover, the word of the LORD

N Dreaver, the word of the Ecker came unto me, faying, 2. Son of man, fet thy face against mount Seir, and prophene against it, 3. And fay unco it, Thus faith the Lord God, Behold, O mount Seir, I am 2-gainst thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee moit desolate,

4 I will lay thy cities walke, and thou

I shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know in that I am the LORD.

5 Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and halt fleet toe blood of the en children of Ifrael by the force of the flowerd, in the time of their calamity, in the the time the their iniquity basen end:
6 Therefore, as I live, faith the Lord and blood shall purioe thee: 11th thou at hast not hated blood, even blood shall po purfue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir most defolate, and cut off from it him that paffeth out, and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mountains with the flain men: in thy hills, and in t sy vallies, and in all thy rivers shall they fall that are flain with the fword.

9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
to Because thou hast said, These two nations, and their two countries shall be mine, and we will possels it, whereas the LORD was there

It Therefore, as I live, faith the Lord GOD, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them: and I will make my self known amongst them, when I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that lam the LORD, and that I have heard all the blafphemies which thou haft spoken aga ... It the mountains of lirael, faying, They are laid defolate, they are given us to confume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have boafted against me, and have multiplied your words against me : I have heared them.

14 Thus faith the Lord GOD, When the whole earth rejoyceth, I will make thee defolate.

1; As thou didft rejoyce at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee thou shalt be desolute, I mount Seir, and all Idunies, even all of it, and they shall know that I am the LORD. CHAP. XXXVI

27 And in the day that he goeth into the fanctuary, unto the inner court to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his fin-offering, faith the Lord GOD.

28 And it shall be unto them for an in-beritance; I am their inheritance; and ye shall give them so possession in Itrae!

They thall eat the meat-offering, and the fin-offering, and the trefpais-offering; and every dedicate thing in lirael shall be theirs

30 And the first of all the first-fruits of all things, and every oblation of all of every fort of your oblations shall be the priests: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your cough, that he may cause the bleffing to reit in thine house,

31 The prieft shall not eat of any thing that is dead or it felt, or torn, whether it be fowl or beaft. The land divided by partions, &c.

Oreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for imperitance, ye final offer anoblation unto the LOND, an holy portion of the land: the langth joint be the length of five and twenty thousand D d reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand: this shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about. 2 Of this there shall be for the fanctuary five numered in length, with five hundred in breadth, fquare round about; and fitty cubits round about, for the tubur is thereof.

3 And of this meafire fhalt thou meature the length of five and twenty thouland, and the bread hot ten thousand : and in it shall be the lanctuary, and the most holy place.

4 The holy for ion or the land thall be for the pricits the miniters of the lanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD, and it shall be a place for their toules, and an holy place for the fanctuary. s And the five and twenty thouland of length, and the ten thousand of breadth fiali alio the Levites the minifters of the house have for themselves, for a postession for twenty chambers.

6 ¶ And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long over against the oblation of the hely portion: it shall be for the whole house of lirael.

7 And a pertion shall be for the prince on the one fide and on the other fide of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the polletion of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the polleifion of the city, from the west-fide westward, and from the east-fiele east-ward; and the length jball be over against one of the portions, from the weit-border unto the east-border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Ifrael, and my princes shall no more opprefs my people, and the rest of the land thall they give to the houle of Ifrael according to their tribes.

o Thus faith the Lord GOD, Let it fuffice you, O princes of Hrael : remove violence and ipoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, faith the Lord GOD.

just ephah, and a just bath.

The ephan and the bath shall be of one m. afure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the er hah the tenth part of an homer; the measure thereor fhall be after the homer.

12 And the flickel hall be twenty gerals : twenty fiek is, five and twenty thekels, fifteen hekels thall be your manch

13 This is the obtation that ye shall offer ; the fixth part of an ephan of an homerof wheat, and ye shall give the fixth part of an ephah of an homer of bailey.

14 Concerning the ordinance of oyl, the bath of oyl, ye had ofer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of cen baths; for ten baths are an homer as And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat peltures of Israel for a meat-offering, and for a burntoffering, and for peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for them, faith the LONG GOD, 16 Ali the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Ifrael.

17 And it shall be the princes part to give burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and drink-offerings, in the feafts, and in the new-moons, and in the fabbaths, in all folemnities of the house of lirael : he man prepare the lin-offering, and the meat-offering, and the burnt-offering, and the peace-orierings, to make reconciliation for the house of Brael.

18 Thus faith the Lord Goo, In the first month, in the first day of the month, then fhalt take a young bullock without bie-milh, and cleanle the fanctuary.

19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the fin-offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the fettle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

20 And fo thou fhait do the feventh day of the month, for every one that erreth, in and for bim that is finiple : fo thall ye reconcile the house.

21 In the first month, in the fourteenth w day of the month, ye shall have the palfover, a tealt of feven days, unleavened bread shall be eaten.

22 And upon that day shall the prince in prepare for himfelf, and for all the peorle of the land, a bullock for a fin-offering. the 23 And leven days of the feaft he shall po prepare a burnt-offering to the LORD, fe- 10 ven bullocks, and feven rams without ble-an mish, daily the seven days, and a kid of the goats daily for a fin-offering.

24 And he shall prepare a meat-offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephaham for a rain, and an hin of oyl for an ephah. im

25 In the leventh month, in the fifteenth way of the month shall be do the like 12 with the least of the leven days, according to the fin-offering, according to the burnt-offering, and according to the meat-offering, and according to the ovi-ring, and according to the ovi-

Orlinances for the princes and people, &c. THusiaith the Lord GOD. The gate of the inner court that looketh towards the eath shall be shut the fix working to days: but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new-moon item. shall be opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and the me prietts shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he fall on worthip at the threshold of the gate: there he shall go forth, but the gate shall not be by

thut until the evening

2 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD, in the fabbaths, and in the new-moons.

4 And the burnt-offering that the prince fnall offer un'o the LORD in the abbath day, thall be fix lamba without blemin and a ram without blemish.

5 And the meat-offering shall be an | phah for a ram, and the meat-offering or the lambs as he shall be able to give, nd an hin of oyl to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new-moon it half be a young bullock without blemish, nd fix lainbs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he mall prepare a meat-offering, in ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for ram: and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oyl o an ephah.

8 And when the prince shall enter, he hall go in by the way of the porch of that ate, and he shall go forth by the way

o & But when the people of the land vall come before the LORD, in the folemn cafts, he that entreth in by the way of the orth-gate to worship, shall go out by the eth by the way of the fouth-gate, shall o forth by the way of the north-gate: he tall not return by the way of the gate hereby he came in, but shall go forth ver against it.

to And the prince in the midft of them, then they go in, shall go in; and when ney go forth, fall go forth, 1 and in the folemities, the meat-offering fall be an e-bah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, nd to the lambs as he is able to give, and n hin of oyl to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare voluntary burnt-offering or peace-offe-ngs, voluntarily unto the Lord, one shall nen open him the gate that looketh to-ard the caft, and he shall prepare his untt-offering, and his peace-offering, s he did on the labbath-day: then he hall go forth, and after his going forth, ne fhall fut the gate.

13 Thou shalt daily prepare a burntffering unto the LORD, of a lamb of the rit year without blemifh ; thou fhalt pre-are it every morning.

14 And thou fhalt prepare a meat-offetan ephah, and the third part of an hin foyl, to temper with the fine flower; a eat-offering continually, by a perpetual rdinance unto the LORD.

is Thus inall they prepare the lamb, nd the meat-offering, and the oyl, every torning, for a continual burnt offering.
16 ¶ Thus faith the Lord GOD, If the tince give a gift unto any of his fons, the heritance thereof that be his fons, it all be their poleffion by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his fervants, then it shall be this to the year of liberty: after; it hall eturn to the prince; but his inheritance fall be his fons for theat.

18 Moreover, the prince shall not take the peoples inheritance, by Opprefon to thrult them out of their posseson; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not icattered every man from his possession.

19 After, he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and behold, there was a place on the two fides west-ward.

20 Then faid he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boyl the trefpais-offering, and the fin-offering, where they shall bake the meat-offering : that they bear them not out into the utter court, to fanctifie the people. 21 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and cauled me to pals by the four corners of the court, and behold, in. every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts joyned of forty cubits long, and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure, 23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boyling-places under the rows round about.

24 Then faid he unto me, These are the places of them that boyl, where the ministers of the house shall boyl the faction

CHAP. XLVII.

The vijion of the boly waters, &c.

Afterward he brought me again unto the door of the house, and behold, waters is liked out from under the threshold of the house east-ward : for the forefront of the house food toward the eak, and the waters came down from under from the right fide of the house, at the fouth-fide of the altar.

2 Then brought he meout of the way of the gate north-ward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh east-ward, and beholdthere ran out waters on the right fide.

2 And when the man that had the line in his hand, went forth east-ward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters : the waters were to the ancles,

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees: again he meafured a thousand, and brought me through ; the waters were to the loyns.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand, andit was a river that I could not pals over: tor the waters were rifen, waters to iwim in, a river that could not be passed over. And he faid unto me, Son of man, hait thou feen this? then he brought me and caused me to return to the brink of the 7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one fide and on the other

8 Then faid he unto me, Thefe waters iffue out toward the east-country, and go down into the defert, and go into the fea which. pobich being brought forth into the fea, the waters thail be healed.

9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whitherfoever the rivers shall come, shall live : and there shall be a very great multi-tude of fish, because these waters shall come thither : torthey fall be healed, and every thing shall live whither the river cometh

10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it, from En-gedi even anto En-eglaim; they shall be a place to ipread forth nets, their fift mall be according to their kinds as the fifth of the great lea, exceeding many.

nt But the miry places thereof, and the marifines thereof, shall not be healed, they hall be given to falt.

12 And by the river upon the bank thereof on this fide and on that fide, thall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be confumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they iffued out of the fanctuary, and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.
13 ¶ Thus faith the Lord Gop, thall be the border, whereby ye fhall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Ifrael: Joseph thall have two portions.

14 And ye fhall inherit it. one as well as another: conserning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers, and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land soward the north-lide, from the great fea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad

17 An lihe border from the fea, shall be Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus, and the north north-ward, and the border of Hamath : and this is the north-fide

18 And the east-side ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damafeus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Ifrael be lordan, from the border unto the eastfea: and this is the east-side

10 And the fouth-fide fouth-ward from Tamar, even to the waters of ftrife in Kalein, the river, to the great fea: and whis if the fouth-lide fouth-ward.

The west-side also shall be the great fea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath : this is the west-side. 21 So shall ye divide this land unto you, according to the tribes of Ifrael.

22 ¶ And it hall come to pa's, that ye hall divide it by lot for an inheritance among you, and to the strangers that sciourn among you, which shall beget shildren among you; and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Mirael, they shall have inheritance with 23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the itranger fojourneth, there shall ye give bim his inheritance, faith the Lord GOD.

C. H. A. P. XLVIII.

The portions of the twelve tribes, &c. TOw thefe are the names of the tribes, from the north-end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazar-cnan, the border of Da-malcus north ward, to the coast of Hamath (for thefe are his fides catt and weft) a portion for Dan.

2 And bythe border of Dan, from the eastfide unto the west-side, a portion for Asher.

2 And by the border of Asher, from the eaft-fide even unto the welt-fide, a portion for Naphtali. 4 And by the border of Naphtali, from the east-side unto the west-side, a portion for Manaileh. And by the border of Manaffeh, from the east-fice unto the west-fide, a portion for Ethraim,

6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east-fide even unto the west-side, 2 fortion for Reuben,

7 And by the border of Reuben, from the east-iide unto the weit-fide, a portion for Judah.

8 n And by the border of Judah, from the east-fide unto the west-fide, shall be the offering which ye shall offer of five at d twenty thousand needs in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the eat-fi e unto the we?-fide, and the fanctuary shall be in the midst of it.

9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the LORD, Mall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth.

to And for them, even for the priefts shall be this holy obtation, toward the north, five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and roward the fouth five and twenty thousand in length, and the fan-ctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof

11 It shall be for the priests that are fanctified, of the fons of Zadok, which have kept my charge, which went not aftray when the children of Ifrael went altray, as the Levites went altray

12 And this oblation of the land that is offered, shall be unto them a thing mole holy by the border of the Levites.

13 And over against the border of the pricits, the Levices shall base five and twenty thousand in length, and tenthousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thouland

14 And they shall not fell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the first-fruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD.

15 T And the five thousand that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling and for fuburbs, and the city shall be in the midst

16 And these shall be the measures thereof, the north-lide four thousand and five hundred, and the fouth-fide four thousand and five hundred, and on the eastfide four thousand and five hundred, and the west-side four thousand and five hundred 17 And the fuburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the fouth two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the welt two hundred and fifty,

18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion, shall be ten thousand east-ward, and ten thousand west-ward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion, and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that ferve the city.

19 And they that ferve the city, shall ferve it out of all the tribes of lirael.

20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand, by five and twenty thoufand : ye thall offer the holy oblation fourfquare, with the possession of the city.

21 ¶ And the refidue shall be for the prince on the one fide, and on the other of tac hely eblation, and of the possession of the city over against the five and twenty thousand, of the oblation toward the eastborder, and west-ward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the westborder, over against the portions for the prince, and it shall be the holy oblation, and the fanctuary of the house shall be in the midit thereof.

22 Moreover, from the polletion of the Levites, and from the polletion of the city, being in the midd of that which is the princes, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

23 As for the relt of the tribes, from the ealt-lide unto the welt-lide, Benjamin shall bave a portion.

24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east-side unto the west-side, Samcon shall bave a pertion.

25 And by the border of Simeon, from the eaft-lide unto the welt-fide, lifachar a portion

26 And by the border of Islachar, from the east-fide unto the west-fide, Zebulun

27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east-fide unto the west-lide, Gad a portion,

23 And by the border of Gad, at the fouth-fide fouth-ward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of strife in Kadelh, and to the river toward the great fea.

29 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and thefe are their portions faith the Lord GoD.

30 1 And thele are the goings out of the city, on the north-lide, four thousand and five hundred measures.

31 And the gates of the city fall be after the names of the tribes of Ifrael, three gates north-ward; one gate of Reubena one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi.

22 And at the east-fide feur thousand and five hundred : and three gates ; and and hwe hundred; and three gates; and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Bennamin, one gate of Ban, 23 And at the footh-fide four thousand and five hundred measures; and three gates; one gate of Sumon, one gate of Illachar, one gate of Zemulun.

24 At the well-fide four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Yade, one gate of Yade, gate of 'ad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali.

35 It was round about eighteen thouland medures: and the name of the city from that day fall be, The LORD is there.

The Book of DANIEL.

CHAP. CHAP. I. Jeboiakims captivity, &cc. N the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, came Nebuchadpezzar king of Babylon, unto Jerulalem, and belieged it.

2 And the LORD gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the veilels of the house of God, which he car-ried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god, and he brought the veffels into the treasure-house of his god.
3 Il And the king spake unto Ashpenaz

the mafter of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Ifrael, and of the kings feed, and of the princes;

4 Children-in whom was no blemifn, but well-tavoured, and skilful in all wifdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the kings palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans, s And the king appointed them a daily provision of the kings meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

of Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mithael, and Azariah:

7 Unto whom the prince of the cunuchs gave names : for he gave unto Daniel the name of Beltefhazzar; and to Hananiah of Shadrach ; and to Mishael, of Meshach ; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

8 41 But Daniel purpofed in his heart, that he would not defile himself with the portion of the kings meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he re-quested of the prince of the onnuchs, that he might not defile himself.

9 NOW D da

9 Now God had brought Daniel into Savour and tender love with the prince of the cunuchs, to And the prince of the eunuchs faid anto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your fort? then shall ye make me endanger my bead to the king.

It Then faid Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the sunuchs had let over Daniel, Hananiah, Milhael, and Azariah, 12 Prove thy fervants, I befeech thee, sen days, and let them give us pulle to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the kings meat: and as thou feeft, deal with thy fervants.

14 So he contented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days, their countenances appeared fairer, and fatter in flesh then all the children which did eat the portion of the kings meat. 16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink: and gave them pulse.

17 S As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had underitanding in all visions and dreams. 18 Now at the end of the days that the king had faid he should bring them in, them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king communed with them, and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king,

20 And in all matters of wilden and understanding that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and aftrelogers that were in all his realm.

first year of king Cyrus.
C H A P. II.
Nebuchadnezzari dream, &c.

A Nd in the fecond year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his furit was eroubled, and his fleep brake from him.

2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the aftrologers, and the foreerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams: so they came and acod before the king.

3 And the king faid unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my first was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy lervants the dream, and we will frew the interpretation.

6 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof ye shall be cut in pieces, and your house inall be made a dunghill. 6 But if ye shew the dream, and the inme gifts and rewards, and great honour therefore hew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his lervants the dream, and we will thew the interpretation of it. 8 The king antwered and laid, I know 100 of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

o But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I fhall know that ye can fhew me the interpretation thereof. to i The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the kings matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked fuch things at any magician, or aftrologer, or Chaldean.

ii And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with fieth.
12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to deltroy all the wife-men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wife-men fhould be flain; and they fought Daniel and his fellows to be flain.

14 % Then Daniel answered with counfel and wildom to Prioch the captain of the kings guard, which was gone forth to flay the wife-men of Babylon :

15 He answered and said to Arioch the kings captain, Why is the decree so hafty trom the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

Then Daniel went in, and defired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azarizh his companions: 18 That they would defire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this fecret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perith with the rest of the wife-men of Babylon, 19 ¶ Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night-vision: then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and faid, Bleffed be the name of God for ever and ever: for willow and might are his.

21 And he changeth the times and the feafons: he removeth kings, and fetteth up kings: he giveth wifdom unto the wife, and knowledge to them that know understanding.

22 He revealeth the deep and fecret

things: He knoweth what is in the darkenels, and the light dwelleth with him.
23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou

s. God of my fathers, who halt given me if wildom and might, and halt made known for thou hait now made known unto us the kings matter.

24 9 Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch whom the king had ordained to deltroy the wife-men of Babylon; he went and faid thus unto him, Deftroy no: the wife-men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will flew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in halte, and faid thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the the interpretation.

26 The king aniwered and faid to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have leen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and faid, The fecret which the king hath demanded, cannot the wifemen, the aftrologers, the magicians, the foothfayers flew unto the king;

28 But there is a God in heaven that revealeth feerets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar, what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are

29 (As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind, upon thy bed, what should come to pals hereafter : and he that revealeth fecrets maketh known unto thee

what shall come to pals. go But as for me, this fecret is not re-realed to me, for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their fakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightit know the thoughts of thy heart.

31 ¶ Thou, O king, fawest, and behold, a great image: this great image whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee, and the form thereof was terrible.

22 This images head was of fine gold, his breaft and his arms of filver, bis belly and his thighs of hrafs,

33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

Thou fawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which fanote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brais, the filver and the gold broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the jummer-threshing-floors, and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the flone that Imote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 ¶ This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

17 Thou, O king, art a king of kings : for the God or heaven hat's given thee a kingdom, power, and itringin and glory. 38 And where over the children of men dwell, the beatts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and nath made thee ruler over them all: thou are this head of gold.

3) And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brais, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron; foras much as iron breaketh in pieces, and lubdueth all things : and as iron that breaketh all thele, ihall it break in pieces, and bruife.

41 And whereas thou tawelt the feet and toes, part of potters clay, and part of iron: the kingdom thall be divided, but there shall be in it of the frength of the iron, foramuch as thou faweit the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet mere part of iron, and part of clay; so the kingdom shall be partly throng, and partly broken. 43 And whereas thou tawest iron mixt with miry clay, they shall mingle themfelves with the feed of men; but they mall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the days of there kings shall the God of heaven let up a kingdom which Mall never be deitroyed and the gdom thall not be left to other peor le, but it shall break in pieces, and configure all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Forafmuch as thou fawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, that the brass, the clay, the lilver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what final come to passineraliter; and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof fure.

46 ¶ Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation, and fweet odcurs unto him, 47 The king answered unto Daniel, and faid, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of fecrets, feeing thou couldit reveal this fecret.

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wife-men of Babylon.
49 Then Daniel requested of the king.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king fent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treaturers, the countellers, the thereis, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the addication of the image which Nebushadnezzar the king had let up,

3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treaturers, the counfellers, the meriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had fet up; and they iteed before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had fet up. 4 Then an herauld cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and 13 I Then Nebuchadnezzar in bis rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, brought thele men before the king.

14 Rebuchadnezzar foake and faid un-to them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Me-shach, and Abed-nego? do not ye serve my gods, nor wor'nip the golden image which I have fet up?

15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the found of the cornet, flute, harp, fackbut, pfaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and

16 Shadrach, Mchach, and Abed-nego answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it he fo, our God whom we ferve, is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 But it not, be it known unto thee, Oking, that we will not ferve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou halt let up.

19 9 Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fary, and the form of his vilage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he lipake and com-manded, that they should heat the furnace one feven times more than it was wont to be heat.

20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army, to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then thete men were bound in their coats, their hofen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore because the kings com-mandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire flew those men that took up Shadrach, Mashach, and Abed-nego.

23 And thefe three men, Shadrach, Mefhach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midft of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was aftonied, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellers. Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.
25 He answered and said, Lo, 1 see four men loofe, walking in the midt of the fire, and they have no hurt, and the form of the fourth is like the fon of God.

26 1 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnance, and spake and faid, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye fervants of the most hig! God, come forth, and come bither. Then Shadrach, Meinach, and Abed-nego came forth of the midft of the fire.

27 And the princes, governors and captains, and the kings counfellers being gathered together, faw thefe men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head finged, neither were their coats changed, nor the [mell of fire had paffed on them.

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said. Bleffed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath fent his angel, and delivered his fervants that trufted in him, and have changed the kings word, and yielded their bodies, that the 29 Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which ipeak any thing amil's against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill, because there is no other God that can deliver after this fort.

so Then the king promoted Shadrach, Mefhach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

wrought toward me,

3 How great are his figns! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlafting kingdor, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 TI Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace : 5 I faw a dream which made me atraid, and the thoughts upon my bed, and the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree, to bring in all the wife-men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

Then came in the magicians, the afrologers, the Chaldeans, and the foothfayers; and I told the dream before them, but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 6 But at the last Daniel came in before me (whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my God, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods) and before him I fold the dream, faying,

9 O Beltefhazzar, mafter of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee and no fecret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have feen; and the interpretation thereof

10 Thus were the vilions of mine head in my bed, I faw, and behold, a tree in the midft of the earth, and the height there-

It The tree grew, and was ftrong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the fight thereof to the end of all the earth The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beafts of the field had fhadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flefh was fed of it.

13 I law in the visions of my head upon my bed, and behold, a watcher, and an holy one came down from heaven.

14 He cried aloud, and faid thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit; let the beafte get away from under it, and the fowis from his branches.

15 Neverthele's, leave the ftump of hie roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brafs, in the tender grafs of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beafts in the grais of the earth.

16 Let his heart be changed from mans, and let a beatts heart be given unto him, and let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy cres: to the intent that the living may know, that the most High ru-leth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and fetteth up over it the baieft of men.

This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have feen : now thou, O Belteinazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forafmuch as all the wife-men of my king-dom are not able to make known unto me the interpretations but thou art able; for the ipirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 ¶ Then Daniel (whole name was Belteinazzar) was attorned for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him the king fpake, and faid, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof trouble thee. 27 Wherefore, Oking, let my countel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy fins by righteoutnets, and thine iniquities, by thewing mercy to the poor, if it may be a lengthning of thy tranquillity. 28 9 All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar. 29 At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babyton.

30 The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom, by the might of my power, and for the honour of ny majesty?

31 While the word was in the kings mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, Jaying, Oking Nebuchadnezzar, to thee at is spoken, The kingdom is departed from thee.

2 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling that! be with the beatts of the field: they that! make thee to eat grais as oxen, and feven times shall pass Over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomfoever he will.

33 The fame hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar; and he was driwen from men, and did eat grafs as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heawen, till his hairs were grown like eagles featbers, and his nails like birds claws.

34 And at the end of the days, I Nebuchadnezzar lift up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I bletled the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlaiting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation.

35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing : and he doth according to his will in the army of hea-wen, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can ftay his hand, or fay unto him, What doft thou?

36 At the fame time my reason returnedunto me, and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returnen unto me; and my counfellers and my lords lought unto me; and I was establithed in my kingdom, and excellent majeity was added unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extel and honour the King of heaven, all whole works are truth, and his ways in ignent, and those that walk in pride wine before the thouland.

> Belfhazzar, whiles he tafted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and fil-ver veffels, which his father Nebuchad-nezzar had taken out of the temple which princes, his wives and his concubines might drink theroun.

3 Then they brought the golden veffels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God, which was at Jerusalem ; and the king, and his princes, his wives and his concuoines drank in them.

4 They drunk wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of filver, of bra's, of iron, of wood, and of thone.

5 ! In the same hour came forth fingers of a mans hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the kings palace; and the king faw the part of the hand that wrote.

If There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom? pretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king; and the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry? 14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light, and unnerstanding, and excellent wildom is found in thee.

15 And now the wife-men, the aftrologers have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and 18 O thou king, the most high Ged gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a king-dom, and majelty, and glory, and honour.

19 And for the majefty that he gave him, all people, nations and languages trembled and feared before him: whom tremoied and teared before infi : whole he would he flew, and whom he would he kept alive, and whom he would he fet up, and whom he would he put down.

30 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardned in pride, he was depoted from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him.

21 And he was driven from the fons of at Annale was driven from the lons of men, and his heart was made like the beafts, and his dwelling was with the wild after: they fed him with grafs like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomfoever he will.

22 And thou his fon, O Belfnazzar, haft not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this:

23 But haft lifted up thy felf againft the Lord of heaven, and they have brought the veffels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines have drunk wine in them, and thou haft praised the gods of filver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, half then not glorified.

24 Then was the part of the hand fent from him, and this writing was written.

7 All the prefidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counfellers and the captains have confutted togather to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whofoever shall ask a petition of any God or man, for thirty days, fave of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the nen of lions.

8 Now, O king, ettablish the decree, and fign the writing; that it be not changed, according to the law of the Meses and Persians, which altereth not.

o Wherefore king Darius figned the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel knew that the writing was figned, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneet-ed upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

It Then these men allembled, and found Daniel praying, and making impelication before his God.

12 Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the kings decree, Haft thou not figned a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God, or man, within thirty days, fave of thee, O king, shall be call into the den of Hons? Then these men allembled unto the king, and faid unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Perhansis, that no decree nor statute which the king eltablifieth, may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and calt bim into the den of hons: now the king spake and faid unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And a Itone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den, and the king fealed it with his own figner, and with the fignet of his lords; that the purpole might not be changed concerning Daniel.
18 1 Then the king went to his palace, and palled the night falting : neither were instruments of musick brought before him, and his fleep went from him.

79 Then the king arole very early in the morning, and went in haite unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel, and the king spake and faid to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy Sod whom thou ferveit continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?
21 Then faid Daniel unto the king, Oking, live for ever.

22 My God hath fent his angel, and hath that the libns mouths that they have not hurt me : foralmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and allo before thee, O king, have I done no hurt, 23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and, commanded that they thould take Daniel up out of the den: fo Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24 % And the king co manded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the maftery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces, or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 ¶ Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations and languages that dwell in all the earth, Peace be multiplied unto

you. 26 I make a decree, that in every dominion of my kingdom, men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be deftroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and refcueth, and he worketh figns and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrusthe Perfian.

Daniels vision of the four heafts, &c. N the first year of Belfnazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions of his head upon his bed : then he wrote the dream, and told the fum of the matters.

2 Daniel Spake, and faid, I faw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven ftrove upon the great fea. 2 And four great beatts came up from the fea, diversone from another.

4 The first was like a lion, and had eagles wings: and I beheld till the wings thereof were pluckt, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a mans heart was given to it.

5 And behold, another beaft, a fecond like to a bear, and it raifed up it felf on one fide, and it bas three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they faid thus unto it, Arife, devour much

After this I beheld, and lo, another like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl, the beaft had allo four heads; and dominion was given

7 After this I faw in the night-visions, After this I saw the night visions and behold, a fourth heaft, dreadful and terrible, and firing exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and framped the residue with the feet of it, and it was divers from all the beafts that were before it, and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns pluckt up by the roots: and behold, in this horn mere eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the ancient of days did fit, whose garment was white as Inow, and the hair of his head like the pure wooll: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

10 A fiery stream issued, and came forth from before him : thousand thousands ministred unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand thood before him : the judgment was fet, and the books were o-

it I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake : I beheld even till the beaft was flain, and his body deftroyed, and given to the barning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion 'aken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a featon and time.

13 I saw in the night-visions, and behold, one like the fon of man, came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 And

14 And there was given him domicaliand glory, and a kingdom, that all peop ple, nations, and languages mould ferve him: his dominion is an everlatting dominion, which shall not pals away, and his kingdom that which shall not be de-Stroyed.

15 9 I Daniel was grieved in my pirit in the midit of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this: To he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. These great beafts, which are four, are four kings, which shall atife out of the earth

18 But the faints of the most High Mall take the kingdom, and policis the kingnom for ever, even for ever and ever.

Then I would know the truth of the fourth beatt, which was divers from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brais, which devouted, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet, 20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell, even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that fpake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the fame horn made war with the faints, and prevailed against 22 Intil the ancient of days came; and 'gment was given to the faints of the the High; and the time came that the last policifed the kingdom.

Thus he faid, The fourth beaft shall te fourth kingdom upon earth, which be divers from all kingdoms, and devour the whole earth, and shall tre dit down, and break it in pieces,

2 And the ten horns out of this kingare ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them, and he shall be divers from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

24 And he shall speak great words 2gainst the most High, and shall wear out the faints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand, until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment fhall fit, and they shall take away his dominion, to confume, and to destroy it unto the and.

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the faints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlastingkingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance chan-ged in me; but I kept the matter in my beart.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks

27 And I Daniel fainted and was fick sertain days ; afterward I role up, and did the kings business, and I was aftonished at the vision, but none understood it.

CHAP. IX. Daniel confesset bis sins, &c. N the first year of Darius the son of Ahafuerus, of the feed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans 2 In the first year of his reign, I Daniel underfrood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accompilif feventy years in the defolations of Jerufalem.

2 ¶ And I fet my face unto the Lord

GoD to feek by prayer and supplications, with fafting, and fackcloth, and after, as:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD matter of the control o commandments:

5 We have finned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from pure thy precepts, and from thy judgments.

Neither have we hearkned unto thy fervants the prophets, which spake in thy name, to our kings, our princes, and cur fathers, and to all the people of the fand,

7 O LORD, righteou nels belonget bunto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, at this day: to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Ifrael that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries El, 00 whither thou hast driven them, be-cause of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. C21 : 1550

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveneties, though we have rebelled against him.

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws which he fet before us, by his fervants the

it Yea, all Ifrael have transgreated thy law, even by departing, that they much not obey thy voice, therefore the ourse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Mofes the fervant of God, because we have finned against him.

12 And he hath confirmed his words which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing up-on us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done, as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 Asit is written in the law of Moles, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the Lord our God, that we might turn from our ini-quities, and understand thy truth 14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and breught it upon usfor the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that haft brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and half gotten thee renown as at this day: we have finned, we have done wickedly.

16 9 O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from the city Jerusalem, the holy menntain: because for our sines, and for the iniquities of our sathers, Jerusalem and the people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear

he prayer of thy fervant, and his suppli-ations, and cause thy sace to shine upon ly fanctuary that is defolate, for the ords lake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and ear; open thine eyes, and behold our efolations, and the city, which is called y thy name: for we do not prefent our upplications before thee for our righte-usnesses, but for thy great mercies, 19 O Lord, hear, O Lord, forgive, ord, hearken and do, defer not, hine own lake, O my God: fer thy city, nd the people are called by the name.

20 ff And whiles I was feeaking, and the raying, and confelling my fin, and the n of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my jod, for the holy mountain of my God:

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayit, even the man Gabriel, whom I had een in the vision at the beginning, being aused to fly swiftly, touched me about he time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and faid, O Daniel, I am now ome forth to give thee skill and undertanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications, the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and confider the vision

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people, and upon thy boly city, to hnish the transgression, and to make an end of fins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righ-teoulness, and to feal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Hely.

25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem, unto the Meffiah the prince, falt be feven weeks; and threefcore and two weeks the ftreet shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times,

26 And after threefcore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himfolf: and the people of the prince that fhall come, shall destroy the city, and the fanctuary, and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined :

27 (And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week : and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations, he shall make it desolate) even until the con-fummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

CHAP. X. Daniel bumbleth bimself, &co IN the third year of Cyrus king of Perfia, thing was revealed unto Daniel, (whose name was called Beiteshazzar) and the thing was true, but the time appointed mas long, and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks

2 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came field nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint my felf at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the fide of the great river, which is Hiddekel:

Then I lift up mine eyes and looked, and behold, a certain man clothed in li-nen, whose loyns were girded with fine gold of Uphaz

6 His body alfo mas like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude,

7 And I Daniel alone faw the vition, for the men that were with me faw not the vision: but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fied to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vition, and there remained no strength in me : for my comlines was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

o Yet heard I the voice of his words:

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep fleep on my face; and my face toward the ground.

to ¶ And beheld, an hand touched me, which fet me upon my knees, and upon the palms of my hands.

it And he faid unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly belowed, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto and when he had boken this word unto me, I ftood trembling, Fear not, Da-niel: for from the Arit day that thou didlt fet thine heart to understand, and to chaiten thy fell before thy Gold, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

12 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but lo, Michael one of the chief princes came to help me, and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befal thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I fet my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And behold, one like the fimilitude of the fons of men touched my lips: then lopened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that itood before me, O my lord, by the vision my forrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the fervant of this my lord, talk with this my ford? but as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

sa Then

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthned me,

10 And faid, O man greatly beloved, fear not, peace be unto thee, be itrong, yea, be ftrong. And when he had Ipoken unto me, I was strengthned, and taid, Let my lord speak; for thou hatt !trengthned me. 20 Then faid he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Peria: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Green shall come.

21 But I will flew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth : and there is none that holdeth with me in thefe things, but Michael your prince.

CHAP. XI.

The overthrow of Persia, &c.

Lso I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I fhew thee the truth, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia, and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his ttrength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia

3 And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he mall stand up, his kingdom fhall be broken, and fhall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be pluckt up, even for others besides those.

5 91 And the king of the fouth shall be ftrong, and one of his princes, and he shall be frong above him, and have dominion : his dominion frall he a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall

joyn themselves together; for the kings daughter of the fouth shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement : but the shall not retain the power of the arm, neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthned her in these times

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also carry captives into E. gypt, their gods with their princes, and with their precious vessels of filver and of gold, and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the fouth shall come into bis kingdom, and shall return into

to But his fons shall be flirred up, and shall allemble a multitude of great forces : and one shall certainly come and overflow, and pass through: then shall he re-turn and be stirred up even to his fortre 5.

IT And the king of the fouth shall b moved with choler, and fhall come fort and fight with him, even with the kin of the north : and he shall set forth great multitude, but the multitude that mul be given into his hand

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be litted ur and he shall cast down many ten thousands but he shall not be strengthned by it. 13 For the king of the north shall re-turn, and shall set forth a multitude gree ter than the former, and finall certainly come (after certain years) with a grea army, and with much riches.

14 And in those times there stall many the 28 7 stand up against the king of the fouth d o the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision, but thall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities, and the arms of the fouth shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither thall there be any ftrength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him, shall do according to his own will, and none hall fland before him : and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be confumed.

17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him: thus flairhe do, and he shall give him the daughter of women corrupting her: but the thall not frand on bis fide, neither be for him.

18 After this mall he turn his face unto the ifles, and thall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face towards the fort of his own land : but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom; but within few days he fall be destroyed, neither in anger, por in bat-

21 And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom : but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and fhail be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

22 And after the league made with him, he mall work deceitfully; for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a fmall people,

24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province, 3nd he shall do that which his fathers have not doctor nor his fathers fathers, he shall scatter among them the prey and spoil, and riches; yea, and he shall forecast his

3 50 he went and took Gomer the aughter of Diblaim, which conceived and bare him a fon.
4 And the LORD faid unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the walley of Jezreel.

6 And the conceived again, and bare a daughter; and God faid unto him, Call ber name Lo-ruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Ifrael; but I will utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will fave them by the LORD their God, and will not fave them by bow, nor by fword, nor by pattle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 ¶ Now when the had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and bare a son. 9 Then faid God, Call his name Loammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 ¶ Yet the number of the children of Ifrael shall be as the fand of the lea, which cannot be measured, nor numbred; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them,

Ke are the fons of the living God,

Jonab preacheth 'o the Ninevites, &c. A Nd the word of the LORD came unto I Jonah the fecond time, faying,

Arile go unto Nineveh that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee

3 So Jonah arose and went unto Nineweh, according to the word of the LORD (now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days journey.)

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city adays journey, and he cried, and faid, het forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 $1 So the people of Ninevel believed God, and provinimed a fast, and put on fackeloin from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineven, and he arole from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered bim with fackcloth, and fat in aihes,

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed, and published through Nineven (by the decree of the king and his nobles) faying, Let neither man nor beaft, herd nor Hook, talte any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beaft be covered with fackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let then turn every one from his cvil way, and from the violence that is GHAP. III.

Hababeubs prayer, &c.

Prayer of Habakkuk the prophet upon Sigionoth.

2 O LORD, I have heard thy speech and was asraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst or the years, in the midft of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

3 God came from Teman, and the holy One from mount Paran. Selah, His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise. 4 And bis brightness was as the light. he had horns coming out of his hand, and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pettilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.
6 He flood and measured the earth:

he beheld, and drove afunder the nations, and the everlaiting mountains were feattered, the perpetual hills did bow : his ways are everlaiting.

7 I faw the tents of Cufhan in affliction : and the curtains of the land of Midi-an did tremble 8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didit ride upon thine horses, and thy chariots of salvation?

of Thy how was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didit cleave the

to The mountains faw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lift up his hands on high.

11 The fun and moon freed thill in their habitation : at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the fhining of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou diest march through the land in indignation, thou didft thresh the heathen in anger:

13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people even for falvation with thine ancinted; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah,

14 Thou didft strike through with his staves the head of his villages : they came out as a whirlwind to featter me : their rejuycing was as to devour the poor fe-cretly.

15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, torough the heap of great waters.

16 When I heard, my belly trembled: my lips quivered at the voice : rottennels entred into my bones, and I trembled in my felf, that I might rest in the day of trouble; when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

17 Although the fig-tree shall not bloffem, neither hall fruit be in the vines, the labour of the wlive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat, the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the Ralls:

18 Yet I wi'l rejeyce in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my falvation.

The Lord Gon is my strength, and he will make my feet I:ke hinds feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief finger on my ftringed inftraments.

ZEPHANIAH.

Geds judgment against audab, &c. He word of the LORD which came unto Zephanian the fon of Cufhi, the fon of Gedaliah, the fon of Amariah, the fon of Hizkiah, in the days of Joliah, the fon of Amon king of Judah.
2 I will utterly confume all things from off the land, faith the LORD. 3 I will confume man and beaft : I will confume the fowls of the heaven, and the filhes of the fea, and the frumbling-blocks with the wicked, and I will cut off man from off the land, faith the LORD.

4. I will also fretch out mine hand upon !

Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerulalem, and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the chemarims with the priefts;

s And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house-tops, and them that worthip, and that fweat by the LORD, and that fivear by Malcham;

6 And them that are turned back from the LORD, and those that have not fought the LORD, nor enquired for him 7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GoD: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a factifice, he hath bid his guefts, the LORDs tecrifice, that I will pumih princes, and the kings children, and all fuch as are clothed with ftrange

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their maiters houses with violence

to And it shall come to pass in that day, faith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish-gate, and an howling from the fecond, and a great crashing from the hills.

II Howl, ye inhabitants of Maktefh, for all the merchant-people are cue down : all they that bear filver are cut off.

12 And it thall come to pals at that time, that I will fearch Jerusulem with candles, and punish the mentbat are lettled on their lees; that fay in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil. 13 Therefore their goods mall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabitthem; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 The great day of the Lord is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the Lord; the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and diffress, a day of wastness and defolation, a day of darknels and gloominefs, a day of clouds and thick darknefs,

16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring diffress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as duit, and their flesh as the dung.

18 Neither their filver nor their gold thall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORDs wrath, but the whole land thall be devoured by the hre of his jealoufie: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

CHAP. II. An exbortation to repentance, &cc. Ather your selves together, yea, ga-Tther together, O nation not defired : 2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pals as the chaff, before the fierce siger of the Lorn come upon you, before the day of the Lords anger come upon you.

3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment, feek righteoufnefs, teek meeknefs: it may be, ye shall be hid in the day of the LORDs anger.

4 ¶ For Gaza shall be forfaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Aihdod at the noon-day, and Ekron firail be routed up.

5 We unto the inhabitants of the feacoalts, the nation of the Cherethites: the word of the LORD is againg you; O.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of j. Canaan, the land of the Bhillittines, I will even definoy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant

6 And the fea-coast shall be dwellings and cottages for thepherds, and folds for Hocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the loufe of Judah; they shall feed thereupon, in the houles of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening : for the Lord their God thall vifit them, and turn away their captivity.

6 I have cut off the nations : towers are defolate, I made their ftreets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are deltroyed, to that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant,

7 I faid, Surely thou wilt tear me : thou wilt receive instruction, so their dwelling should not be cut off, however I punished them, but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.

8 f Therefore wait ye upon me, faith the Lord, until the day that I nieup to the prey: for my determinat on i to gather the nations, that I may affemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine in-dignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth in all be devoured with the fire of my jestoufie.

9 For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call up-on the name of the LORD, to ferve him with one confent.

to From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed shall bring mine offering. if In that day thalt thou not pe afhamed for all thy doings, wherein thou halt tranigreffed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoyce in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain. 12 I will also leave in the midft of thee an afflicted and poor people, an i they shall trust in the name of the LORD.

13 The remnant of Ifrael thall not do iniquity, nor fpeak lies : neither inall a deceitful tongue he found in their mouth : for they shall feed and lie down, and none thall make them afraid.

14 ¶ Sing, O daughter of Zion, shout,

O lirael, he glad and rejoyce with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.

15 The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath calt out thine enemy: the King of Ifrael, even the Lond is in the midt of thee; thou shalt not see evil any more.

46 In that day it shall be faid to Jerasalem, Fear thou not : and to Zion, Let not thine hands be flack.

12. ¶ Then Zerubbabel the fon of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Joseph she high prieft, with all the remnant of the people obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, (as the LORD their God had fent him) and the people did fear before

the LORD,
13 Then spake Haggai the LORDs mellage unto neclenger in the Lords mellage unto the people, faying, I am with you, faith the LORD.

14 And the LORD Riered up the Spirit

Maggai reprove the people, &c.

The fecond year of Davius the king, in the fixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggar the prophet unto Lerubbabel the fen of Shealtiel governor if Judah, and to Jothua the fon of lofelech the high prieft, faying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hofts, aying, This people fay, The time is not once, the time that the Lords house hoald be built.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by laggai the prophet, faying,

4 Is it time for you, Oye, to dwell in our cieled houses, and this house lie vafte ?

f Now therefore, thus faith the LORD f hoths, Confider your ways.

6 Ye have fown much, and bring in lite: ye cat, but ye have not enough: ye rink, but ye are not filled with drink: eclothe you, but there is none warm: nd he that carneth wages, earneth wa-as to put it into a hag with holes.

15 In the four and twentieth day of the fixth month, in the feeond year of Darius the king.

CHAP. II.

He encourageth the people to the work, &c. IN the teventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the Ford of the LORD by the prophet Haggar, laying,

2 Speak now to Zerubbabel the fon of Shealtiel governor of Judan, and to Jothua the fon of Josedech the high priest, and to the residue of the people, faying,

2 Who is left among you that faw this house in her first glor; ? and how do ye fee it now? is it not in your eyes in comparison of it, as nothing?

4 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, faith the LORD, and be strong, O Joshua, fonot Joiedech the high priest, and be firong, all ye people of the land, faith the Lorn, and work: for I am with you, faith the Lorn of hofts;

According to the word that I covenan. ted with you when ye came out of Egypt, fo my ipirit remaineth among you : fear ye not.

6 For thus faith the LORD of hofts, Yet once, it is a little while, and I will hake the heavens and the earth, and the fea, and the dry land :

And I will thake all nations, and the defire of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with glory, faith the LORD of hosts.

8 The filver is mine, and the gold is mine, faith the LORD of hofts, 9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, faith the LORD of hofts: and in this place will I give peace, frith the LORD of hofts.

to I In the four and twentieth day of the ninth monte, in the fecond year o Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, laying,

Thus faith the LORD of hofts, Ask now the priests concerning the law, faying 12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oyl, or any meat, shall it be boly? aniwered and laid, No. And the priefts

13 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body, touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests an-iwered and said, I shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and faid, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, faith the LORD; and to it every work of their hands, and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a itone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD.

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten when one came to the preis-lat for to draw out fitty welds out of the preis, there were but twenty.

17 I I more you with blatting, and with mildew, and with hail, in all the labours of your hands, yet yeturned not to me, faith the LORD.

18 Confider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the minth month, even from the day that the foundation of the Lords temple was laid, confider it.

19 Is the feed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree hath not brought forth: from this day will I piels you.

20 ¶ And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twen-tieth day of the month, faying, 21 Speak to Zerubabel governor of Judah, faying, I will make the heavens and the earth,

22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will deltroy the ftrength of the kingdoms of the heathen, and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them, and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

23 In that day, faith the LORD of hofts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel my fervant, the fon of Shealtiel, faith the LORD, and will make thee as a fignet : for I have I chefen thee, faith the Lord of hofts.

ZECHARIAH.

Zechariab exhortes to repentance, &c.

N the eight month, in the fecond year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah the fon of Barachiah, the ion of Iddo the prophet, laying, 2 The Lord hath been fore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore fay thou unto them, Thus faith the LORD of hofts, Turn yourto me, faith the LORD of holts, and I will turn einto you, faith the LORD of holts.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto who m in the former prophets have cried, faying, Thue faith the Lorn of holds. Turn the ye now from your cril ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not be hear, nor hearken unto me, faith the way

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever? 6 But my words and my statutes, which kin I commanded my fervants the prophets in did they not take hold of your fathers and and they returned and faid, Like as the im LORI MI

Lorn of hoits thought to do unto us, 2ccording to our ways, and according to our doings, fo hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the lecond year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zecharran the on of Barachiah, the fon of Iddo the prophet, faying,

8 I law by night, and behold, a man tiding upon a red horfe, and he stood anong the myrtle-trees that were in the nottom, and behind him were there red lories, speckled and white.

9 Then faid I, O my lord, what are hefe? And the angel that talked with ne, faid unto me. I will shew thee what to And the man that flood among the nyrtle-trees answered and faid, Theie are bey whom the LORD hath fent to walk to nd fro through the earth.

tr And they answered the angel of the ORD that stood among the myrtle-trees, nd said, We have walked to and fro hrough the earth, and behold, all the arth fitteth ftill, and is at reft.

12. If Then the angel of the load anvered and faid, O LORD of hofts, how has wilt thou not have mercy on Jeruilem, and on the cities of Judah, against hich thou haft had indignation thefe reefcore and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel

at talked with me, with good words, 1d comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with e, faid unto me, Cry thou, faying, Thus ith the Lord of hofts, I am jealous for rusalem, and for Zion with a great aloufie.

15 And I am very fore displeased with e heathen that are at ease: for I was t a little displeased, and they helped rward the affliction.

Therefore thus faith the LORD, I networked to Jerusalem with mercies:

v house shall be built in it, saith the ORD of hosts, and a line shall be etthed forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, faying, Thus saith the Loan hosts, My cities through prosperior all yet be spread abroad, and the LORD yet comfort Zion, and shall yet oose Jeruialem.

8 ¶ Then lift I up mine eyes, and w, and behold, four horns.

9 And I faid unto the angel that talked th me, What be thefe? And he answerme, These are the horns which have ttered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. • And the LORD shewed me four penters, Then faid I, What come thefe to do? dhe spake, faying, These are the horns ich have scattered Judah, so that no n did hit up his head: but these are we to fray them, to cast out the horns the Gentiles, which liftup their horn it the land of Judah to scatter it. CHAP. II.

Gods care of Ferusalem, &c. Lift up mine eves again, and looked, and behold, a man with a mealuringline in his hand.

Then faid 1, Whither goest thou? And he faid unto me, To measure Jerufalem, to fee what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

2 And behold, the angel that talked with me, went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

4 And faid unto him, Run, fpeak to this young man, taying, Jerufalem sha'l be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cat le therein.

5 For I, faith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the mult of her.

6 ¶ Ho, no, come forth, and the from the land of the north, faith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, faith the LORD

7 Deliver thy felf, O Zi n, that dwel-lelt with the daughter of Babylon. 8 For thus faith the LORD of hofts,

After the glory hath he fent me unto the nations which spoiled you, for he that toucheth you, toucheth the apple of his

9 For behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a speil to their servards; and ye shall know that the LORD of hofts bath fent me.

to ¶ Sing and rejoyce, O daughter of Zion: for lo, I come, and will dwell in the midft of thee, faith the LORD.

11 And many nations shall be joyned to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midit of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hoits hath fent me unto thee

12 And the LORD mall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and fhall choose Jerusalem again,

13 Be filent, O all flesh, before the LORD: tor he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

CHAP. III. Christ the branch is promised.

Nd he inewed me Joshua the high priest, standing before the angel of And he shewed me prieft, franching before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to refift him,

2 And the LORD faid unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan, even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem, rebuke thee: is not this a brand pluckt out of the fire?

2 Now Joshua was clothed with fifthy garments, and stood before the angel.

And he answered, and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he faid, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

And I faid, Let them fet a fair mitre upon his head: so they set a fair mitre upon. upon his head, and clothed him with garments; and the angel of the Lord flood by. 6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, laying,

7 Thus faith the LORD of hofts, If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou will keep my charge, then thou thalt alio judge my house, and thalt alto keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among thele that frand by.

8 ¶ Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy tellows that fit before thee : for they are men wendred at : for be-hold, I will bring forth my fervant the BRANCH.

9 For behold, the stone that I have laid before Joshua: upon one stone Jeall be feven eyes; behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, thith the Loud of hosts, and I will remove the imputity of that land in one day.

to In that day, faith the LORD of holls, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine, and under the fig-tree. CHAP. IV.

The success of Zerubbabels foundation, &c. Nd the angel that talked with me, came again and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his fleep,

2 And faid unto me, What feelt thou? And I faid; I have looked, and behold, a eandlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and feven pipes to the feven lamps, which were upon the top thereof :

2 And two olive-trees by it, one upon the right fide of the howl, and the other upon the left fide thereof.

4 50 I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, faying, What are thefe, my lord ?

Then the angel that talked with me, answered, and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I faid, No, my lord.

10 But he that received the feed into

Rony places, the fame is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it:

21 Yet hath he not root in himielf, but dureth for a while : for ween tribulation or perfecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 He also that received feed among the thorns, is he that heareth the word, and the care of this world, and the decentulnets of riches choke the word,

and he becometh unfinitful

23 But he that received seed into the good ground, is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it, which also beareth dred-fold, fome fixty, fome thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, faying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which fowed good feed in his field:

25 But while men flept, his enemy came and lowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was fprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares alfo.

27 So the fervants of the housholder came and faid unto him, Sir, didft not thou fow good feed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares

28 He faid unto them, An enemy hath done this. The fervants faid unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he faid, Nay; leit while we gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will lay to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them : but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forts unto them, faying. The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard-eed, which a man took and lowed in his field: 32 Which indeed is the least of all feeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree: fo that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 A Another parable fpake he unto unto leaven, which woman rock and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened was froken by the prophet, laying, I will onen me mouth in parables, I will utter things which have been kent fecret rom the loundation of the world.

34 All thefe things spake Jesus unto the muititude in parables, and without a parable spake he not unto them;

26 Then Joins fent the multirude away, and went into the house; and his disciples come unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and faid unto them, He that foweth the good feed, is the Son of man: 38 The field is the world: the good feed are the children of the kingdom : but the tares are the children of the wic-

The enemy that fowed them, is the devil : the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burnt in the fire; fo fhall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man thall fend forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;
42 And mall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Then shall the righteous shine forth as the fun, in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field: the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and felleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant-man, feeking goodly pearls:

46 Who when he had found one pearl of great price, he went and fold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net that was cast into the fea, and gathered of every kind.

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and fat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. 49 So shall it be at the end of the world : the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just;

so And mail cast them into the furnace of hre: there thall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus faith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then faid he unto them, Therefore every foribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a manthat is an housholder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to pais, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their fynagogue, infomuch that they were aftoni-thed, and faid, Whence hath this man this wildom, and thele mighty works

65 Is not this the carpenters fon? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his fifters, are they not all with us? whence then hath this man all thele go my way, and ye shall feek me, and thall die in your tins: whither I go, ye cannot come. 22 Then faid the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he faith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he faid unto them, Ye are from beneath, I am from above: ye are of this world, I am not of this would.

14 1 faid therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your jins : for if ye believe not that I am be, ye shall one in your fins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who are thou? And Jelus faith unto them, Even the fame that I faid unto you from the beginning. 12 I have many things to fay, and to judge of you : but he that fint me, is true ; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then faid Jelus unto them, When ve have lift up the Son of man, then thall we know that I am be, and that I do nothing of my felt's but as my Father hath taught me, I ipeak their things.

19 And he that fent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone ; for

I do always those things that please him. 20 As he spake these words, many be-

Peter and John imprisoned, &c.

Nd as they spake unto the people, the priefts and the captain of the ple, and the Sadduces came upon

Being grieved that they taught the ple, and preached through Jefus the irrection from the dead.

And they laid hands on them, and them in hold unto the next day: for was now even-tide.

Howiest, many of them which heard word, believed; and the number of men was about five thousand.

¶ And it came to pass on the mor-, that their rulers, and elders, and ibes,

And Annas the high prieft, and aphas, and John, and Alexander, and many as were of the kindred of the h prieft, were gathered together at Jerufalem.

And when they had let them in the dift, they asked, By what power, or what name have ye done this?
Then Peter filled with the holy off, faid unto them, Ye rulers of the spies, and elders of Ifrael,
I we this day be examined of the old deed done to the imporent man, what means he is made whole?

what means he is made whole;
o Be it known unto you all, and to all for that which was done. 22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was flewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had faid unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lifeup their voice to God with one accord, and faid, Lord, thou art God which haft made heaven and earth, and the fea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy fervant David hast faid, Why did the heather-rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth flood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being priv; to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apolities

3 But Peter faid, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the holy Ghoit, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was fold, it not in thine own power? willy halt thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hait not lied unto men, but unto God.

And Ananias hearing these words, fell down, and gave up the ghoft; and great lear came on all then, that heard thele things.

6 And the young men arofe, wound him up, and carried bim out, and buri-

And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.
8 And Perer answered unto her, Tell me whether ye fold the land for fo much. And she laid, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter faid unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

to Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost : and the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying ber forth, buried ber by her husband.

II And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard thefe things.

12 (And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomone perch. 13 And of the rest durft no man joyn

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his hou hold-fervants, and a devout foldier of them that waited on him continually

8 And when he had daclared all these things unto them, he lent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the house-top to pray, about the fixth hour.
10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance, it And faw heaven opened, and a cer-tain vettel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet, knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of iourfooted bealts of the earth, and wild beafts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rife, Peter; kill and eat. 14 But Peter faid, Not fo, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spate unto him again the fecond time, What God hath cleanfed, that call thou not common. 16 This was done thrice: and the vef-

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be faints: Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lett latin Chrift. Lord Jefus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jelus Christ for you all, that your faith is spo-ken of throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom I ferve with my ipirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers, 10 Making request (if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God) to come anto you.

it For I long to fee you, that I may impart unto you fome spiritual gift, to the end you may be chablished; in That is, that I may be comforted together with you, by the mutual laith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brettren, that oftentimes I purpoled to come uner you, (but was let hitherto) that I might have forme fruit among you alfo, even as among other Gentiles.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome alfo.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospe of Christ: for it is the power of God unto falvation, to every one that believeth, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the righteousness of God severled from faith to faith: as it as For the wrath of God is revealed

19 Because that which may be know of God, is manifest in them; for Go.

perience, hope :

s And hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts, by the holy Gholt watch is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without ftrength, in due time Chrift died for the ungodiy. 7 For scarcely for a rightcous man will one die; yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. 8 But God commended his love towards us, in that while we were yet finners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then being now justified by his blood, we shall be faved from wrath through him.

to For it when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of

Lis Son: much more being reconciled, we shall be laved by his life. at And not only $75, but we also joy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the 2-

12 Wherefore, as by one man fin entred into the world, and death by fin; and fo death palled upon all men, for that all have finned.

13 For until the law fin was in the world : but in is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moles, even over them that had not finned after the fimilitude of Adams transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come :

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one, many be dead; much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. 16 And not as it was by one that finned, Jo is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation; but the free gift is of many offences unto justification, 17 For if by one mans offence, death reigned by one; much more they which receive abur dance of grace, and of the gift of righteoutnets, Mail reign in life by one Jeius Chaft.

18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment same upon all men to condemnation: even to by the righteoufners of were baptized into Jelus Chrift, were

4 Therefore we are buried with him by haptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

s For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death : we shall be alfo in the likeness of his resurrection :

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with bim, that the body of tin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not ferve in.

7 For he that is dead, is freed from fin, 8 Now if we be dead with Christ, wa believe that we shall also live with him

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. 10 For in that he died, he died unto fin to be dead indeed unto an; but alive unto God through Jefus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not fin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteoutness unto fin: but yield your felves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead; and your members as inftruments of right courne a unto God.

14 For fin shall not have deminion over you : for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we fin, because we are not under the law, but under grace ? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whem ye yield your felves fervants to obey, his fervants ye are to whom ye obey; whether or in unro death, or of obedience unto righteoutness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the fervants of fin; but ye have on year from the heart that form of dectrine which was delivered you.

18 Being then made free from fin, ye became the fervants of rightecufnefs,

14 I fi eak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your fielh : for sa ye have yielded your members fervants to ancleanness and to iniquity, unto iniquity; even to now yield your members tervants to rightedulnels, unto holinels.

2c For when he were the fervants of fin, ye were hee from rightcoulers. 2t What frust had ye then in those ahings, whereof ye are now ashamed?

for the end of those things is death. 22 But now being made free from fin, and become fervants to God, ye have become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to a-Eher, even to dead, that we should bring forth forth unto God.

For when we were in the flesh, the motions of fins which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth gruit unco death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should ferve in newness of fpirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

What shall we say then? Is the law fin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known fin, but by the law: for I had not known luft, except the law had faid, Thou shalt not covet.

8 But fin taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupifcence. For without the law fin mas dead.

For I was alive without the law once : that when the commandment came, fin serviced, and I died.

I consent unto the law, that it is good. 17 Now then, it is no more I that do it, but fin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know, that in me (that is in all my flesh) dwelleth no good thing : for the to will is present with me, but bere to perform that which is good, I find not. 14 is For the good that I would, I do not : 15

They that are in Christ are free, &c. Here is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jeses, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the spirit of life, in Christ Jesus, hath made me free from the law of fin and death.

2 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the fielh, God fending his own Son, in the likenets of finful fleth, and for fin condemned fin the flesh :

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flefli, do mind the things of the flesh : but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. 6 For to be carnally minded, is death; but to be spiritually minded, is life and peace:

7 Because the carnal mind is emnity against God: for it is not subject to the 8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the

with them partakelt of the root and fatnels of the olive-tree;

but the root thee.

20 Well ; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear.

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take beed lest he alfo fpare not thee. 22 Behold therefore the goodness, and feverity of God: on them which ell, feverity; but towards thee, goodness, if thou continue in bis goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. 23 And they also, if they hide not fill in unbelief, shall be graffed in : for God is able to graff them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive-tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good o-live-tree; how much more shall these which be the natural branches, be graffed

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, fave Jelus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech, and my preaching was not with enticing words of mans wildom, but in demonitration of the Spirit, and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the lower of God.

6 Howbert we ipeak wildon among them that are perfect; yet not the wildom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to rought.

7 But we speak the wildom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wissom which God ordained before the world unto our glory

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of giory.

9 But, as it is written, Eye hath not feen, nor ear heard, neither have entred into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. to But God hath revealed them untous by his Spirit: for the Spirit fearcheth all of a man, fave the spirit of man which is in him? even fo the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. 12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which mans wildom teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth; comparing ipiritual things with ipiritual.

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are fooliffiness unto him; neither can be know them, because they are spiritually differned.

15 But he that is spiritual, judgeth all thing, yet he himfell is judged of no man.

Defraud ye not one the other, except of be with confent for a time, that ye may give your selves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

7 For I would that all men were even as I my felt: but every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I fay therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry : for it is better to marry than to burn. ic And unto the married I command.

yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from ber husband: ir But and if fhe der art, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to ber bushand:

and let not the husband put away bis wife. 12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord, If any prother hath a wife that believeth not, and free be pleated to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an hufhand that believeth not, and if he be plealed to dwell with her, let her not leave

14 For the unbelieving husband is fancified by the wife, and the unbelie-ving wife is fancified by the husband; elle were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But it the unbelieving depart, let h.m depart. A biother or a filter is not under bondage in such cases; but God hath called us to peace, 15 For what knowed thou, O wife, whether thou shalt fave thy husband? or how knowest theu. O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, astle Lord hath called every one, to let him walk: and fo ordain I in 32 But I would have you without care fulneis. He that is unmarried, careth fo the things that belong to the Lord, hor he may please the Lord

he that is married, careth fo the things that are of the world, how h

34 There is difference also between

For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every fide; without were fightings, within mere fears.

Nevertheless, God that comforteth those that are calt down, comforted us by the coming of Titus:

7 And not by his coming only, but by forted in you, when he told us your carnel defire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; fo that I rejoyced the more.

8 For though I made you forry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the fame epittle made you forry, though it were but for a leafen.

9 Now I rejoyce, not that ye were made forry, but that ye forrowed to repentance: for ye were made forry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

to For godly forrew worketh repentance to falvation not to be repented of: but the forrow of the world worketh

II For behold, this felf-fame thing that ye forrowed after a godly fort, what carefulnels it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of your felves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement defire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! in all things you have approved your felves to Exportations to liberality, &c. Orcover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed the churches of Macedonia:

How that in a great trial of affliction. abundance of their joy, and their ep poverty, abounded unto the riches their liberality.

For to their power (I bear record) a, and beyond their power they mere ling of themselves.

Praying us with much intreaty, that. would receive the gift, and take upon the fellowship of the ministring to faints.

And this they did, not as we hoped, first gave their own selves to the rd, and unto us by the will of God. Infomuch that we defired Titus, that he had began, fo he would also finish

Therefore as ye abound in every thing, faith, in utterance, and knowledge, d in all diligence, and in your love to ; fee that ye abound in this grace also. 3 I speak not by commandment, but occasion of the forwardness of others, d to prove the fincerity of your love, For ye know the grace of our Lord fus Christ, that though he was rich, yet r your fakes he became poor, that ye rough his poverty might be rich.

to And herein I give my advice: for is is expedient for you, who have be-n before, not only to do, but also to 23 Whether any do enquire of Titus; be is my partner, and fellow-helper concerning you : or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ. 24 Wherefore fnew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your leve. and of our boafting on your behalf.

He Sheweth wby be fent Titus, &c. For as touching the ministring to the faints, it is superflous for me to

2 Yet have I fent the brethren, left our boating of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready :

4 Left haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we fay not, you) should be ashamed in this fame confident boatting.
5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up before hand your bounty, whereof ye had no-tice before, that the fame might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetouineis.

6 But this I say, He which foweth sparingly, shall reap also sparingly: and he which soweth bountifully, shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purpoleth in his heart, so tel bim give; not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver.

s Of fuch an one will I glory: yet of my felf I will not glory, but in mine

6 For though I would defire to glory, I fliall not be a foel; for I will tay the truth : but now I forbear, left any man fhould think of me above that which ne feeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And left I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me at thorn in the field, the meltinger of Satan to buffet me, left I should be exated above measure.

8 For this thing I befought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he faid unto me, My grace is fufficient for thee : for my itrength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may reit upon me.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, 4 (Always in every prayer of mine for

For your fellowship in the gospel, from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jeius Chrift;

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, in as much as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

priest of the meet legit God, who met Abraham returning from the flaughter of the kings, and bleffed him:

2 To whom alfo Abraham gave a tenth part of all: first being by interpretation king of righteoutnets, and after that also, king of Salem, which is, king of peace; 3 W: thout father, without mother, with out descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually. 4 Now confider how great this man post, unto whom even the patriarch A-braham gave the tenth of the spoils. And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothren, though they come out of the loyns of Abraham:

6 But he whose descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham, and bleffed him that had the promites. And without all contradiction, the le's is bleffed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes: but there he received them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

o And as I may so say, Levi also who receiveth tithes, paid tithes in Abraham. to For he was yet in the loyns of his father when Melchifedec met him.

It If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law) what further need was there that another prieft thould rife after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?
12 For the priesthood being changed.

there is made of necessity a change also that after the similitude of McIchisedec

there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testisieth, Thou are a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec 18 For there is verily a dianuling of the commandment going before, for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

A description of the rives of the law, &c. Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly fanctuary.

For there was a tabernacle made, the first wherein warthe candlestick, and the gable, and the shew-bread; which is cal-fed the fanctuary.

3 And after the fecond vail, the ta-bernacle which is called the holieft of all: 4 Which had the golden cenfer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had marna, and Aarons rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

5 And over it the cherubims of glory fhadowing the mercy-feat : of which we

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always in o the first tabernaele, accomplishing the fervice of Goa:

7 But into the second went the high Priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people.

CHAP. II.

Not to respect persons, &c.

Y brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ the Lord of glory, with respect of perfons.

2 For it there come unto your allemaly 2 man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man

And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and fay unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and fay to the poor, Stand thou there, or lit here under my tootstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in your felves, and are become juages of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich in laith, and heirs of the kin dom. which he hath promifed to them that love him? 6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men upprets you, and draw you before the judgment-feats?

7. Do not they blaipheme that worthy name, by the which ye are called ? 8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the feripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy felf, ye do well.

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit fin, and are convinced of the law as transgreifors, to For whofoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

ti For he that faid, Do not commit adultery; faid alto, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgreffor of the law.

ta So speak ye, and so do, as they that that be judged by the law of liberty. 12 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath hewed no mercy; and mercy rejoyceth against judgment. 14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man fay he hath faith, and have not works? can faith fave him? 15 If a brother or fifter be naked, and destitute of daily food;

16 And one of you fay unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed, and filled : notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works,

18 Yez, a man may fay, Thou haft faith. and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doit well: the devils also be-

21 Was not Abraham our father fied by works, when he had offered In his ion upon the altar?

We have also a more fure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-ftar arife in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private in-

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingreth not, and their damnation flumbreth not.

4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast isem down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness,

5 And spared not the old world, but faved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the slood upon the world of the ungodly;

5 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into aftes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an enfample unto those that after should live ungodly;

The First Epistle general of JOHN.

Me describeth the person of Christ, &c. Hat which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have feen with our eyes, which we bave looked upon, and our hands have handled of the word of life;

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have feen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us)

That which we have feen and heard, diclare we unto you, that ye also may have tellowship with us: and truly our fel owfhip is with the Father, and with his 5on Jeius Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkneis at all.

6 If we fay that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, ashe is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanfeth us from all fin.

8 If we fay that we have no iin, we deceive our felves, and the truth is not in us. o If we contels our tins, he is taithful, and just to forgive us our fins, and to cleanie us from all unrightcouinels. to If we fay that we have not finned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

What it is rightly to know God, &c. Y little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jelus Christ the righteous: 2 And he is the propitiation for our fins : and not for ours only, but also for the fins of the whole world,

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. a He that faith, I know him, and keep-

5th not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected a tereby know we that we are in him, bught himself also so to walk, even as 11 But he that hatch his brother, is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he gooth, because that darknels hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your fins are forgiven you for 13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unso you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and yo have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the luft of the fleth, and the luft of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world paffeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doch the will of God, abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the laft time and as ye have heard that anticarat mal come, even now are there many antichrifts; whereby we know that it is the laft time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us: for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifelt, that they were not all of us,

I have not written unto you, because ye know not the truth: but bethe truth.

22 Who is a har but he that deniet that Jefus is the Christ? he is antichrist that deniesh the Father and the Son.

23 Wholoever denieth the Son, the fame hath not the Father: [but 7 be that acknowledgeth the Son, buth the Fac ther also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the begin-ning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye 21-fo shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

born of God.

to In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: Whofoever doth not righteoufnels, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

It For this is the mellage that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and flew his brother: And wherefore flew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brothers righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate-you.

14 We know that we have paffed from death unto life, because we love the brethren: he that loveth not bis brother, 2-bideth in death.

15 Whosever hateth his brother, is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in 16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us : and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But whole hath this worlds good, and feeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. 21 Beloved, if our heart condemn un not, then have we confidence towards God. 22 And whatfoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleafing in his fight.

23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Chrift, and love one another, as he gave us commandment, 24 And he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him . and hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAP. IV.

He warnetb not to believe all teachers, &c. B Eloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesion that Jesus Chrift is come in the fleft, is of God. 3 And every fririt that confedeth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flish, is not of God: and this is that Spirit of antichrift, whereof you have heard that it should come, and even now aiready is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them': because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

that we might live through him.
10 Herein is love, not that we loved

God, but that he loved us, and lent his Son to be the propitation for our fins. It Beloved, if God fo loved us, we ought also to love one another.

to No man hath feen God at any time.
If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us, at Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, becaule he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And we have feen and do testifie, that the Father fent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldels in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but per-fect love cafteth out fear; because fear hath torment: he that feareth, is not made perfect in love.

brother also. CHAP.

He that loveth God, loveth bis children, &c. W Holoever Believeth that Jesus is the Chrift, is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him alio that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep his commandments,

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatbever is born of God, overcometh the world : and this is the victo-Ty that evercometh the world, even our faith.

Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believesh that Jelus is the son of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jelus Chrift; not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is

Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. 7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghoft: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood; and these three agree in one.

o If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater : for this is the witness of God, which he hath teltified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God, hath the witness in himselt : he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar, because he believeth not the record that Ged gave of his Son.

it And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life: and this ife is in his Son.

12 He that had the Son, hath life;
and he that had not the Son of God, hath not life.

13 Thefe things have I written unto you that believe on the mame of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we 14 And this is the commence that we have in him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us 15 And if we know that he hear us, whatfoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we defired of him.

16 If any man fee his brother fin a fin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a fin unto death : I do not fay, that he shall pray for it.

And there came unto me one of the en angels, which had the feven vials I of the feven last plagues, and talked th me, faying. Come hither, I will shew the bride, the Lambs wife.

o And hecarried me away in the fpirit a great and high mountain, and thewed thit great city, the holy Jerusalem, sending out of heaven from God, Having the glory of God; and her

ht was like unto a itone most precious, en like a jaiper-itone, clear as cryftal; 2 And had a wall great and high, and d twelve gates, and at the gates twelve gels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Ilrael. 13 On the east, three gates; on the north, three gates; on the fouth, three gates; and on the west, three gates. 14 And the wall of the city had twelve

is And he that talked with me, had a golden reed to meature the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof, to And the city lieth four-fquare, and the length is as large as the breadth; and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thourand furlongs; the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal cording to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jafrer; and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the sourth an emerald; 20 The fifth, sardonyx; the fixth, sardius; the seguth, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinet;

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every feveral gate was of one pearls; every feveral gate was of one pearl: and the ftreet of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I faw no temple therein: for the Lord God almighty, and the Lamb

23 And the city had no need of the fun, neither of the moon to fhine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. 24 And the nations of them which are

faved, thall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honeur into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day : for there shall be no night

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And there shall in no wife enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatfoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lambs book of life.

C H A P. XXII.
The river of the water of life, &c. Nd he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out o' the throne of God, and of the Lamb

2 In the midit of the street of it, and of either fide of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and vielded her fruit every north: and the leaves of the tree mere for the healing of the nations. 2 And

3 And there shall be no more curse : but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his fervants thall ferve him. 4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

f And there shall be no night there, and they need no candle, neither light of the fund for giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever 6 And he faid unto me, Thefe fayings are faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets feet his angel to they unto his ferwants the things which

7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is the that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book. 8 And I John faw these things, and heard them. And when I had he ard and feen, I tell down to worship before the feet of the angel, which shewed methele things. 9 Then faith he unto me. See thou do it not : for I am thy fellow-fervant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the fayings of this book:

The PREFACE.

HE finging of Plaims, thot it [2.9.] must have the morel and spiritual-breathe forth nothing but holy al accomplishment in the New Testaharmony and meledy; yet fuch is the fubrilty of the enemy, and the mity of our nature, agair fiable Lord and mity of our nature again that e Loid and it ways, that our heart can find matter it affected in this harmon, and crete ets. Edividion in this both motoly for there are been three questions e pecusis, firms, conserving fingion. Fift, What wims are to be fing in Churches? Whether David's and other softpure I'm my or the Pia ms invested by the littent goodly men in every age of the littent goodly men in every age of the sach? Secretly, It Scripture Palans, Whether in their case works, or in icensus. stre as Engl fo Poctry is went to run in airdly, By whether are they to be fung? Whether by the whole Churches toggether, with the r voices, or by one madinging alone, and the reft joyning in firoce, and in the close faying. Amen. og of David's P'alms, was an acceptable rorthip of God, not only in his own, but orthop of Good Georgia in Solomon's time, of functed ing times, so in Solomon's time, Chr. 5 13 n. Tekofaphat's time, 2 Chr. 5 13 n. Tekofaphat's time, 2 Chr. 11. Ind. te Text is evident in Hetchab's time, bey are commanded to ting praise in he words of Datid and Afab. 2 Chr. 20. which one piace may ferre to relieve two of the questions (the first and the state of the sections). alt) at once : or this commandment, vas te ceremonial, or moral? Some things n it, indeed, were ceremonial, as feir multipli infirments, es, but what teremon, was there in finging praife with the words of David and Alaph? What if David was a type of Girli, was 4/476 allo? Was every thing of I avid ypical? Are his words, which are of moal. univerfal and perpetust authority, in all nations and ages) are they typica? ?
What can be imagined in making afe of his Sonys to praife the Lord? If they were typicals because the ceremony of mufical influments was joyred with them, then their Prayers were allo typi-oai; because they had that occomony of meense admix with them; but we know, that Prayer then was a moral Duty notwithstanding the incenses; and so their mufical instruments. Befide, That which waitypical (as that they were lung four orders of Priells and Levices, 1 Chr.

72. 9. I must have the moral and spiritus, as a accomplishment in the New Testament. In all the Churches of the Saints principally, who are made Kings and Pricits, Rev. 1. 6. and are the first fruits unto God, Rr. 0. 14. 4 as the Levites were, Num. 2. 45. with hearts and lips, inflead of musical indiaments, to praise t'e Lerd; who are fet feri! 4. 1, 2, 3, as wering to the twenty four orders of Princhs and Levites, 1 Ciron.
15. 9. Therefore not tome felect members, but the whole Courch is commanded to teach ere apetter in all tie feveral fitts of David's Plaims ; fome he-Pfalms, fome Pfalms, from Linns fom: "MSpiritual Songs of that if the linging David's Plaims, be a moral Duty, and therefore perpetual. Then we under the Naw Tellanent are bourd to fine them, as well as they under the fing them, as well as they under the Old; and if we are exprehy commended to long Pfalms, Bymne, and Spiritual Sorgs, then either we must ling Davids Piains, or elfe may affirm. they are rot Spiritual Seoga, which being rennt by an extracribatery gift of the Spirit, for the spirit, for the fake especially of Gods spiritual Israel, but to be read and preached only (as other parts of Holy Win) but to be figned to the spiritual spiritua fing alfo; they are therefore most spin Ifrael of God : and verily, as their finis exceeding great, who will alle a David's Pielins fas other Scriptures) to be read to be preached alfo, (which is another end) fo their fin is crying before Gods who will allow them to be read and presched, but feek to deprive the Lord of the glory of the third end of them, which is, to fing them in Christian Churches, Obj. 1. If it be faid, That the Saints in the primitive Church, did compile Spiritual Soigs of their own induing, and fing them before the Church, I Cor.

Answ. We answer, First, That those Saints compiled their Spiritual Stags by the extraordinary gifts of the Spirit (common in trofe days) whereby they were enabled to praife the a Pfalm, and fing it alone with a loo

Lord in ftrange tongoes, wherein learned Pareus proves those Plalms were uttered, in his Comment on that place, v. 4. which extraordinary gifts, if they were still in the Churches, we frould allow them the like Liberty now. Secondly, Suppose those Plaims were fung by an ordinary gift (which we sup-pose cannot be evicted) doth it therefore follow, that they did not, and that we ought not to fing David's Pfalms? mult the ordinary Giftsof aprivate man quench the Spirit ftill fpeaking to us by the extraordinary gifts of his fervant David ? There is not the least footstep of example, or precept, or colour of reason for such a bold practice.

Object. 2. Ministers are allowed to pray conceived Prayers; and why not to sing conceived Pfalms? Must we not sing in the Spirit, as well as pray in the Spirit? Anfw. First, Becanfeevery good Minifter bath not the gift of fpiritual Poeery, to compose extemporary Pfalms, as he hath of Prayer.

Secondly, Suppose he had, yet seeing Pfalms are to be sang by a joint confeat and harmony of all the Church, in heart and voice (as we shall prove) this cannot he done except he that composits a be done, except he that composeth a Plaim, bringeth into the Church fet forms of Pfalms of his own invention; for which we find no warrant or precedent in any ordinary Officers of the Church throughout the Scriptures.

Thirdly, Because the Book of Pfalms is fo complete a Syttem of Pfalms, which the Holy Ghoft himfelf in infinite wifdom, hath made, to ful all the conditions, Placeffices, Temperations Affections &c. of men in all ages; (as most of our Inter-preters on the Pfalms have fully and par ticularly cleared;) therefore by this the Lord feemeth to liop all mens mouths and minds orderly to compile or ting any o ther Pialms (under colour, that the uccafions and conditions of the Church are new.) be for the publick use of the Church; freing, set eer conduction be what it will, the Lord himself nathupplied us with far hetter; and therefore in Herekiab's time, though doubtlefs there were among them that's which had extraordinary gifts, to compile new Songs, on those new occasions, as Ifaish and Mi-Gaisb, eco. yet we read that they are commanded to ling in the words of David and Afapb, which were ordinarily to be used in the publi k worthin of Gad : and we doubt not, but those that are wife, will casily fee, that those fer forms of Plaims of God's own appointment, not of man's conce vedgift, or human impolition, were Jung in the Spirit, by those holy Levites, as well as their prayers were in the Spigit, which themselves conceived; the Lord not then bindiag them therein to any fet Forms; and fall fet Forms appointed of God, not be of Pfalms, fung in the Spirit now, which others did

Queft. But why may not one compole

lence, and in the end, fay, Amen.
Anfo. If fuch a practice was found the Church of Corines, when any had Pfalm fuggefted by an extraordinat gift, yet in finging ordinary Pfalms the whole Church is to joyn togethe in heart and voice to praise the Lord voice, and the rest joyo with him in I

Firft, David's Pfalms, as hath bee showed, were fung in heart and voice together, by the twenty four Orders o the Mulicians of the Temple, who type to is out the twenty four Elders, all the mera Rev. 5. 8. who are made Kings and Priefts to God, to praise him as they did for if there were any other order of linging Choriters, besides the body of the people to succeed those, the Lord would doubt lefs have given direction in the Gofpel for their qualification, election, main-tenance, we. as he did for the Musician of the Temple, and as his faithfulness hath done for allother Church-Officers if Im

the New Testames t.
Secondly, Others, besides the Levites [the chief Singers] in the Jawith Church did alfofing the Lord's Sorgs; eife why are they sommanded frequently to fing? as in Pfal. 100. 1. 2.3 Pfal. 95. 1. 2.3.
Pfal. 102. title, with v. 8 and Exod.
15. 1. Dot only Mofes, but all Lyack range that Song: they fpake, faying ('is it is it the Original) all, as well as Alofen the women alfo, as well as the nen, ver. 20, 21. and Deut. 32. (whereto fome think John had ecteronic, as well as to Esed 15. 1. when he ar ngs in the Prothe Ros ?. with harps in sheer lanes, and finging we song of Moss, See 5. 3.) This Song of fer is commanded not only to put it to cheir learts, but into their m athe alto Deut. In 19. which argues, the) were with the a mouths to and it toge. ther, a mien at eir hearts. Thirdline area fortele in the days of the New Testametr, at Goda watchmen and definite lost four med by write places) should be the form in the four transfer of the Sung of the Lastin at Sung of the Sung of the Lastin at Sung of the Sung of th together; and the A wille expends commands the figning of P at . H re. not to any telect " If the sur to the whole Church, Eth 5 19 Col. 3 16. Paul and Silas fung toget or in private, Adi 16. 25. and must be ma-blick hear only one man fung? To all thefe, we may add the Practice of the primitive Churches; the testimony of ancient and holy Bafil, is instead of many Esift. 63. When one of is (with te) hath begun a Pfalm, the zeit of us iet in to ling with him, all of us with one heart, and one voice; and this (faith he) is the common practice of the Churches in Egypt, Lybia, I'beber, Paleftina, Syrias and those that dwell on Eus brates, and generally every where, where finging o aims is of any account. To the fame impole also Euclidius gives witness, coles, High like to eap. 17. The objectes made againg this do most of them ead against joying to lings in heart as tall as in voice: as. That by this means hers out of the Church will fing ; as al-, that we are not alway in a fuitable tate to the Matter fung; and likewife, at all cannot fing with understanding. anding join in heart and voice togeanding join in neart and voice togge-er? Are not all the creatures in eaven, eatth, feas, men, bealts, fi-ea, fowels, e.c. commanded to praife he Lord? and yet none of thele, but hen, and godly men too, can do it with siricual unferthanding.

As for the foruple that fome take at e Translation of the book of Pfalms to Metre, begaufe David's Pfalms were ing in his own words without Metre ;

re answer,
First, There are many verses together
reveral Psalms of David, which run rhymes, (as those that know the Herew, and as Buxtorf shews, I telk, p. 150,) which shews at least the law-lines of singing Pfalms in English

Secondly, The Pfalms are penned in ich verfes, as are fuitable to the poetry f the Hebrew linguage, and not in the Ild Teltament as are not poetical; now no roteltant doubteth, but that all the books fine Scripture, mould, by God's ordiance, be extent in the mother tongue acceptant in the mother tongue acceptant in the mother tongue acceptant in the plains are to be sardated into our English tengue; and fin our English tengue; and here, then as all our English fongs (acceptance). ording to the course of our English poery) do run in Metre, fo ought Davides Talms to be translated into Metre, that b we may fing the Lord's forgs, as in ur English tongue, so in such vertes 23 are amiliar to an English ear, which are componty metrical. And as it can be no just offence to any good confeiences, to fing Justits Hebrew flongs in English words to seither to fing his poctical verses in Engis poetical metre: men might as well tumble at singing the Hetrer Platms in our English tunes (and not in the Hebrew unes) as at finging them in English metre which are our verses) and not in such reties as are generally efeed by David, according to the poetry of the Hebrer anguage: but the truth 18,25 the Lerd hath in from us the Hebrew tunes, left we hauld think our felves bound to imite them; fo also the course and frame (for the most part) of their Hebrew poetry. that we might not think our felves bound to imita's that; but that every nation, without feruple, might follow, as the on; s. fo the graver fert of verfes of their t own country portry.

metre fake, we have taken liberty, or poetical license to depart from the true and proper sense of David's words in the Hebrew verfes; po, but it bath been on part of our religious care, and faithful endeavour, to keep close to the Origi-

As for other objections, taken from the difficulty of Ainfworth's tunes, and the corruptions in our common Pfalm-books, corruptions in our common rising-books, we hope they are aniformered in this new Edition of Pfalms, which we here prefent to God and his Churches, For although we have easile to blefs God, in many refpects, for the religious enceavours of the translaters of the Pfalms into metre, ufually appexed to our Bibles ; yet it is not unknown to the godly learned, that they have rather presented a Paraphrates than the words of David translated according to the rule, 2 Chron. 9. 30. and that their additions to the words, detractions from the words, are not feldom and tions from the words, are not reidou and arate, but very frequent, and, many times, needlefs, which, (we luppofe, would not be approved of, if the fame were fo translated into profe) and that their translations of the forfer, and alterations of the fact to frequently, may justly minister matter of effence to them that are able to compare the translation with the Text; of which failings some judicious have oft complained, others have been grieved; whereupon it hath been generally defired, that as we do enjoy other (fo, if it were the Lord's will) we might enjoy this Ordinance also, in its native purity: we have therefore done our endeaveur to make a plain and fami-liar Translation of the Plaims and Words of David, into English Metre, and have or David, this David Merce and the nort is much as prefumed to paraphrafe, to give the fenfe of his meaning in other words; we have therefore attended herein, as our chief guide, the Original, fluuning all additions, except the as even the best translators of themin professions. supply, avoiding all material detraction from words or fenfe. The word \ which we translate [And] as it is redundant fometime in the Hebrew, fo fometime (though not very often) it bath been left out, and yet not then, if the fenfe were not fair without it. As for our Translation, we have with out English Bioles (to which next to the Original, we have had respect) used the Idioms of our own tongue, instead of Hebraisms, left they might feem English barbarisms.

Syconyma's we ule indifferently, as folk for people, Lord for Jebouah, and fometime (though feldon) God for Jehovah ; for which (as for some other interpretations of places cited in the New Tellament) we have the Scripture's authority. Pfal. 4. with 53. Heb. 1, 6. with Pfal. 9. 7. Where a phrase is doubtful, we have followed that which (in our own apprehension) is mest genuine and edifying.

Som:

The PREFACE.

Sometime we have contracted, fonctime dilated, the fame Hibrary word, both for the tenfe and the verie fake; which dilation we perceive to be no praparafiral addition, no more than the cortication of a true and full translation, to be any anglatiful detraction or diminution: as when we dilate, Who hadeths and lay, He it is who bushed; to when we contract, Those that flands in away of God, and fay, God's fearers. Latty, Begaute fonce History words

Lafly, Because some History words bave a more full and emphatical Egonification, than any one English word can or doth sometime express, there we have done that sometime, which faithfulrantations may do, six, not only no translations may do, six, not only no translations may do, six, not only no translations the word, but the emphasis of it, as 2 Mighty God, for God; Piant, Piant 1, for Stand's Frath and faithful-nife, for truth.
